

Career Ready Skills Reflection Worksheet

Career ready skills are acquired abilities that allow college graduates to transition well into a work setting. Employers are looking for candidates with the competencies and skills listed below, which can qualify students to complete their roles in an entry-level job, fellowship, internship, or graduate school program. Therefore, it is critical for students to reflect on these skills (from course, job, internship, volunteer/student organization experience) and describe them effectively in a resume, cover letter, or interview.

Experience/ Responsibility: List the experience and the activity completed	What Did I Actually Do? State specific tasks completed for this job duty/activity	Competencies Developed: Reflect on how this position helped with gaining specific career ready skills	Think about your CliftonStrengths themes and how they were used to complete task*
