

FirstName LastName

Timonium, MD · 410-555-5555 · tstudent@students.towson.edu

Objective

Experienced in developing and interpreting quantitative and qualitative data and seeking a position at an agency dedicated to positive social change and community development

Education

Bachelor of Arts in Sociology May 20xx

Towson University, Towson, MD

- GPA: 3.5
- Skilled in producing professional reports comprehensible to the average reader
- Able to apply sociological theory and concepts to social issues
- Knowledgeable about group and organizational dynamics
- Sensitive to diversity of race, class, gender and other ascribed statuses
- SPSS; Microsoft Word, Excel and PowerPoint proficiency

Relevant Experience

Counseling Intern August 20xx - Present

New Day Women's Shelter, Hunt Valley, MD

- Intake 3-5 new client, reviewing policy, procedures, and rules
- Provide service referrals and police reports based on complexity/severity of individual cases
- Participate in group and individual counseling sessions (clients ages 12-37)

Juvenile Justice Intern February 20xx - Present

Partnership for Learning, Inc., Baltimore, MD

- Plan with local and state attorneys and judges to determine the needs of clients
- Meet with 15 juvenile offenders and their parents per week, screening potential candidates
- Develop curriculum/lessons, program evaluation, fundraising; supervise follow-up services
- Tutor and mentor 10-15 youth per month on professionalism and motivation

Memberships

Alpha Kappa Delta, International Sociology Honor Society, May 20xx - Present

American Sociological Association, January 20xx - May 20xx

Sociology Club, Treasurer, October 20xx - September 20xx