

EARN CREDIT

FOR PARTICIPATING IN PROJECT MARJ

Having successfully completed Project Marj, you are eligible to receive one credit in KNES 271, Special Topics in Physical Education. To receive this credit, you must submit a three to four page, well written, reaction paper describing your experience. This paper should be typewritten and double-spaced. Be sure to include a cover page including your name, phone number, student id #, the date and your paper's title.

Please be aware that this credit does not fulfill General Education Requirements; however, it does count as an elective credit and is applicable toward the 120 credits required for your degree.

Consider the following questions as you write:

1. What did I learn about myself?
2. What did I learn about others?
3. Which event was most significant to me?
4. How did my feelings evolve during the week?
5. What about the week, if anything, would I change?

Please be aware that the grade for this course will be based solely on your reaction paper. So please take the time to write a college level paper that meets all of the requirements. You will be given a letter grade based on the quality of your paper.

Submit your paper on or before
October 7, 2011 to:
