

Be-Imagining BRAZIL

Speaker Series and Film Festival
Spring 2010

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Tuesday, February 16 at 3:30 in Liberal Arts 2110

"Higher Education in Brazil in the 21st Century: Achievements and Challenges"

Dr. Gisele Manganelli Fernandes, Department of English, São Paulo State University (UNESP), Brazil

Friday, February 19 at 7:00pm in the Chesapeake Rooms, University Union

"CARNAVAL BRASILEIRO," featuring Brazilian food & BATALA, an all-women Brazilian drumming group

Sponsored by the Women's Studies Department

Thursday, March 25 at 6:30pm in Liberal Arts 2110

House of Alice (Casa de Alice), a film directed by Chico Teixeira (2007)

Thursday, April 1 at 6:30pm in Liberal Arts 2110

Nailed!, a film directed by Sheldon Schiffer (2007)

The director will be present to introduce the film and answer questions.

Thursday, April 8 at 6:30pm in Liberal Arts 2110

Grandma Has a Video Camera, a film directed by Tania Cypriano (2007)

The director will be present to introduce the film and answer questions.

Monday, April 19 at 3:30pm in Linthicum 100

"Solidarity Economy & Recycling Co-ops in São Paulo: Micro-credit to Alleviate Poverty"

Dr. Jutta Gutberlet, Department of Geography, University of Victoria, Canada

Friday, April 23 at 6:30pm in Liberal Arts 2110

The Year My Parents Went on Vacation (O Ano em Que Meus Pais Saíram de Férias)

directed by Cao Hamburger (2006)

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT LEA RAMSDELL AT RAMSDELL@TOWSON.EDU

CO-SPONSORS: College of Liberal Arts, College of Fine Arts and Communication, Women's Studies Department, Foreign Languages Department, Geography Department, Latin American Studies Program, the Study Abroad Office and the Center for Student Diversity