

Wellness and Clinical Internships with Allegeant

What is Allegeant?

Accountable Care Solutions for Workforce Health and Wellness

Allegeant offers custom accountable care solutions focused on managing and mitigating the health risk of an organization. Allegeant services include conventional wellness programs, lifestyle support for those developing risk, clinical support for chronic individuals, one-on-one consultations, data collection, and analysis and claims support services.

- Visit us on the web:
 - www.Allegeant.net
- Contact Laura Lavrin, Program Director with any questions or to apply.
 - llavrin@allegeant.net

Wellness Internship

Duties and Responsibilities

- Assist Program Director in developing wellness programs.
- Assist Program Director with ongoing programming and design.
- Come up with new and creative wellness ideas to implement at our client sites.
- Assist Wellness Advocates in creating PowerPoint Presentations for Lunch and Learn Seminars.
- Assist Wellness Advocates at client locations.

Clinical Internship

Duties and Responsibilities

- Assist Clinical Director with HRA, Biometric, Medical Claim and Pharmacy Data analysis.
- Develop clinically based “Lunch and Learn” and webinar topics and presentation options.
- Assist at Screenings and Town Hall meetings to educate employees on the new Allegeant ACSP, the goals and requirements of the program.
- Visit PCP Offices to assist with training on the MMOTS system.
- Review Care Gap data for PCP offices and respective clients.