

Article I-Name

The name of this organization shall be The Writer's Block.

Article II-Purpose

The purpose of the club shall be to promote unity not just among Towson University students, but the society in which it is involved. We are to respect each other's opinions, as well as help each other academically, emotionally, and socially inside and outside of Towson University. Our mission is to further advance our capabilities to excel, not just within the boundaries of our current or future careers, but in life in general. We are to surpass whatever limitations that are inhibiting the maximum capacity to an individual's potential. In addition, we are to prove not just to those individuals, but to the world that the true limit to anyone's potential is in fact a manifestation of the mind; thus, all human potential is ultimately limitless.

Article III-Membership

Section 1-Any fee paying, undergraduate student enrolled in Towson University with at least a 2.0 GPA may become a member of The Writer's Block club with voting rights and office holding privileges. The club shall determine the standards for membership and the amount of dues to be paid.
