Forbidden Broadway

SATURDAY, JUNE 30 • 7:30 P.M.

All the way from 47th St. in New York City to Towson University, Forbidden Broadway has packed its bags and taken a trip guaranteed to make you laugh. Celebrating its record-breaking 25th year, this years performances include the puppets of "Avenue Q", the witches of "Wicked", "Billy Joel's Movin' Out", and new looks at old favorites "Les Miz", "Beauty and the Beast", and "Chicago". Other programs will be featured as well such as Mel Brooks' "The Producers", Abba's "Mamma Mia" and "Thoroughly Modern Millie"; with lots more Broadway past and present.

Capitol Steps

THURSDAY, JULY 12 • 7:30 P.M.

The Capitol Steps began as a group of Senate staffers in 1981, which set out to satirize the very people and places that employed them. The 26 members and four pianists perform popular musical parodies and skits all with a political twist. Although most of the current members of the Steps are former Capitol Hill staffers, collectively these performers have worked a total of 18 Congressional offices and represent 62 years of collective House and Senate staff experience.

Sankofa Dance Theater

FRIDAY, JULY 13 • 7:30 P.M.

Sankofa Dance Theater was established in 1989 by Kibibi Ajanku and Kauna Mujamal, to promote authentic African art forms through dance, music, folklore and crafts. Sankofa's focus on traditional African art forms is rooted in the definition of the word "Sankofa" which means to learn from the past to build for the future. SDT reaches back in the rich legacy of African culture and history to move forward in the greater intercultural awareness for the global community.

Elvis 30th Anniversary Tribute

SATURDAY, JULY 14 • 7:30 P.M.

Chris MacDonald isn't just any Elvis impersonator; he is one of the best! He'll take you back to early years, with songs from the 50s and 60s, the movie career, the Las Vegas years and even the comeback special. MacDonald is a young, lean Elvis who draws his audience into the illusion with the look, sound, and nuances that made Elvis the King of Rock and Roll and it made Chris the King of Elvis Impersonators.

Remembering Bing starring Jamie Zemarel

SUNDAY, JULY 15 • 3 P.M.

A tribute to Bing Crosby featuring, Jamie Zemarel, backed by a sextet led by pianist/arranger, Jim Lester. The show is two hours of great music with Jamie Zemarel singing and telling the story as Bing Crosby and reminiscing about his career.

Four Bitchin' Babes: Harmonal Imbalance

FRIDAY, JULY 20 • 7:30 P.M.

Start with four richly gifted singer-songwriters, add 3/4 cup married life, four kids, one French boyfriend, four part harmony vocals, one piano, four guitars, one Rockin' Purple Bass, a dollop of sharp social commentary, cheerleading pom poms, a pinch of PMS, a wardrobe of bling-bling, and you've got an Estrogen fueled hilarious new show that celebrates the best of Babes, Boys, and Botox.

Tap Kids

SATURDAY, JULY 21
7:30 P.M.

"They're upbeat, passionate, energetic—one of the dance world's hottest commodities" claims Dave Zuchowski from the Erie Times News. Kids ranging from ages 9-21 take this traditional dance form to new heights in an electrifying performance that is hip, contemporary, and uplifting. These youngsters will keep your feet tapping while you're in your seats.

An Enchanted Evening: The Music of Broadway

SUNDAY, JULY 22 • 3 P.M.

A delightful evening of music spanning over six decades of the best of Broadway. The extraordinarily talented team of Lee Lessack and Joanne O'Brien present your favorite songs from the enduring classics by Rodgers and Hammerstein to contemporary hits by Andrew Lloyd Webber. This concert of romance and memories has show-stopping numbers from Guys & Dolls, Evita, West Side Story, Carousel, Hello, Dolly, The King and I, Oklahoma, Kiss Me Kate, Phantom of the Opera, Les Miserables and Cats.
