

University Policies and Procedures

07-06.30 CONSENSUAL RELATIONS WITH STUDENTS

I. Policy

Towson University seeks to maintain a professional and ethical educational environment. Actions of faculty members, professional staff members, and academic administrators that are unprofessional or appear to be unprofessional are inconsistent with the University's educational mission. It is essential that those in a position of authority not abuse, nor appear to abuse, the power with which they are entrusted.

II. Persons Subject to Policy

This Policy applies to: faculty members, meaning all persons with teaching or instructional responsibility; graduate students with teaching or instructional responsibility; professional staff; and academic administrators who exercise power over students, whether by teaching, grading, evaluating, or making recommendations for their future studies or employment (collectively "Covered Employees").

III. Prohibited Conduct

- A. A dating or sexual relationship between a Covered Employee and a student is prohibited when the Covered Employee has any current or foreseeable professional responsibility for the student. Voluntary consent by the student in such a relationship is suspect, given the fundamental nature of such a relationship. Moreover, other students may be affected by such behavior, because it places the Covered Employee in a position to favor or advance one student's interest to the potential detriment of others. Therefore, it is deemed unprofessional and a violation of University policy for a Covered Employee to engage in a dating or sexual relationship with a student whom he/she instructs, evaluates, supervises, or advises, or over whom he/she is in a position to exercise authority in any way.
- B. Should a person involved in an existing relationship with a Covered

Employee enroll in the University, the Covered Employee must recuse herself or himself from an academic relationship with that person. In the event the recusal results in the denial of access to an academic program, the University will arrange an appropriate accommodation, including excepting the Covered Employee from this Policy to permit access. Any accommodation will be within the discretion of the Provost or designee.

IV. Policy Violation

A violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action including dismissal for unprofessional conduct. Policies set forth in Chapter 6, Faculty Handbook, will apply to Faculty who violate this Policy. Disciplinary actions against graduate students, professional staff, and academic administrators who violate this Policy will be governed by the disciplinary rules and policies applicable to such persons.

Contact

Contact the Office of Academic Affairs at 410-704-2126 for more information.

Responsibility:	Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs
Authorization:	President's Council
Date:	Approved on October 11, 2004
Effective Date:	October 11, 2004