University Policies and Procedures

08-03.01 - CONTRACT EXECUTION POLICY

I. Policy Statement: The President has authority to enter into agreements on behalf of Towson University (“University”) and may delegate this authority as appropriate. In each case, where authority is delegated, so too is the custodial responsibility for the respective agreements; all agreements must be maintained in the respective office for filing and safekeeping. All contractual commitments may be subject to review by General Counsel. All signature authority must be delegated in writing with specific limitations delineated by the President. Contracts not specifically delegated by this policy may only be executed by the President or his/her designee.

II. Definitions:

A. “Contract” means a contract, agreement, MOU, letter of agreement, letter of understanding, and any other document which memorializes an understanding or agreement between Towson University and a third party.

III. Responsible Executive and Office:

Responsible Executive: Vice President for Administration and Finance and Chief Fiscal Officer

Responsible Office: Office of Administration and Finance

B. Review by General Counsel

1. All University Contracts shall be approved for form and legal sufficiency by the Office of the General Counsel before they are executed. However, such approval is not required (a) with respect to Contracts administered by the Procurement Office, (b) for individual Contracts or extensions or renewals thereof if the form has prior approval by the Office of the General Counsel as a standard and contains no substantive changes or additions other than those pertaining solely to the description of the project, the amount involved, and the term of the Contract or extension, or (c) with respect to Contract administered by a unit of the University that has developed internal capacity for reviewing Contracts that has been approved by the Office of the General Counsel.

2. The party initiating the Contract for the University is responsible for reading the Contract entirely and determining that:
   a. the Contract language accurately reflects the current state of the negotiations;
   b. the Contract meets programmatic and University mission requirements;
   c. the Contract is in the best interests of the University;
   d. he/she can ensure compliance with the obligations the Contract places on the University;
   e. The Contract is sufficiently clear and consistent.

3. The Office of the General Counsel shall determine what other institutional reviews are necessary prior to submission of the Contract for signature.
C. Documentation of Delegation

1. Further delegation of signatory authority may occur in order to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of University operations if such delegation does not unduly expose the University to financial or operational risk of loss.

2. Signature authority delegation requires the approval of the appropriate vice president and must be documented in the Office of the General Counsel. Anyone else who enters into a Contract that purports to bind the University is acting without authority and could be personally liable for the Contract.

3. Delegation of signature authority must be accomplished by completing and signing the Signatory Authority Delegation Form, available through the Office of the General Counsel. The final, signed form should be maintained in the office that administers the delegated Contract(s), with a copy to the delegating vice president, and a copy to the Office of the General Counsel.
