TO OUR GUESTS
Commencement is the highlight of the academic year. It is that significant occasion, both solemn and joyful, when we honor those students who have completed their courses of study. Commencement is important to you, the university and its faculty, staff and students. While the university respects the rights of all to express their views, we require that any such expressions during these Commencement proceedings neither disrupt the ceremony nor prevent others from enjoying it.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT
Towson University seeks to cultivate relationships with Native American and Indigenous communities and nations through academic pursuits, partnerships, historical recognitions, community service and enrollment efforts. These communities and nations include the Susquehannock, Nentego (Nanticoke) and the Piscataway people, who consider the land that the university currently occupies part of their ancient homeland. We hereby acknowledge the ground on which we reside so that all who come here know that we recognize our institutional history and our responsibilities to the peoples of that land and that we strive to address that history so that it guides our work in the present and the future. towson.edu/inclusionequity/diversity/recognizing-indigenous-people-land.html

ALMA MATER
Oh Towson, our Alma Mater
Set up on the hill,
Where bells of our Stephens Hall
Ring proudly ever-still
Make more than your memories
Take the lessons learned
They give us each our story
As the pages turn
From different paths we’ve come
Down different paths we’ll go
With change and through time
Our spirits grow
Oh Towson, our Al-ma Mater
Make your story told
And find moments to look back
To days of black and gold

CONGRATULATIONS FROM PRESIDENT GINSBERG

Dear Class of 2024,

On behalf of everyone at Towson University, I extend my heartfelt congratulations on reaching this incredible milestone.

Today’s ceremony is a truly joyous occasion—for you and your classmates, your family and loved ones, our faculty and staff, and our entire university community. It is a celebration in recognition of all that you have achieved and all that you will accomplish in the future.

While Commencement marks the formal conclusion of your academic program at TU, I am confident that it is a step toward your continuing and life-long pursuit of knowledge. It has been said the most successful people never stop learning. Today will be the day that you launch your unwavering and unending commitment to your field of study, your career, your community and your family.

I hope you enjoy today and experience a sense of great pride, knowing you have gained the knowledge, skills and wisdom to overcome career and life challenges. You leave our campus well-prepared to make a difference in important and consequential ways. This is your charge: to help solve the problems of our time and to help make life better for us all.

You now become members of a distinguished group—Towson University alumni—joining more than 192,000 Tigers across the globe who are making a positive impact every day. I know you will carry on this legacy and show the world just what it means to be a Towson Tiger.

You have earned your stripes, and as you know, a Tiger never loses its stripes. Go forth with the knowledge and experience you’ve gained at TU, and continue to make us all #TUpround.

And always remember—let’s roar together. Go Tigers!

Sincerely,

Mark R. Ginsberg, Ph.D.

UNIVERSITY TRADITIONS

Regalia

Commencement is both a celebration and an academic ceremony. As such, Towson University is guided by the Academic Costume Code as outlined by the American Council on Education (ACE). All Commencement participants are encouraged to maintain a measure of decorum consonant with the occasion.

The caps and gowns worn by degree candidates and faculty in the academic procession have been the traditional costume of the scholar since medieval times and probably represent an adaptation of the ecclesiastical dress since many of the scholars of that period were members of monastic orders.

The bachelor’s gown is distinguished by its long pointed sleeves. The master’s gown has longer, narrower closed sleeves, extending below the knee; the arm is passed through a slit at the elbow. Finally, the doctoral gown has a full bell-shaped sleeve with three bars of velvet and an opening faced with wide velvet bands. The velvet trim may be black or of a color indicating the field of learning of the wearer or the institution from which the wearer earned their highest degree.

At Towson University, graduate students also wear hoods on top of their gowns, trimmed in a colored velvet band to indicate the degree earned.

The Alma Mater

Two graduating students sing and sign the Towson University Alma Mater at the close of every Commencement ceremony. The music was composed by J. Kyle Richards and orchestrated by Brian Balmages.

Ceremonial Mace

The ceremonial academic mace first appeared in European universities during the 14th century and was carried before royalty, mayors of cities and chief officers of the medieval universities. The academic mace represented the amalgamation of two much older pieces of history, the regal scepter and the medieval battle mace.

The mace is considered one of academia’s most treasured symbols of office. It is a fitting symbol and combination of the requisite discipline and earned stature that comes with the academic achievement.

Towson’s University’s mace is beautifully constructed in glass, black metal, gold and maplewood coming together to represent institutional concepts and a visual history of the university. Our mace was commissioned and gifted by the late President Emerita Maravene Loeschke. It was designed and executed by four faculty members in the College of Fine Arts & Communication: Joshua DeMonte, Jenn Figg, Kimberly Hopkins and Jon Lundak.

Gonfalons and Banner Carriers

Gonfalons—also known as heraldic banners—are ceremonial banners carried on a long pole by students to represent each college, graduate studies and the Honors College. Gonfalons display the names of each college which represent different fields of study. Originally used in military and religious ceremonies, they have been a common part of educational celebrations since the Renaissance era. At Commencement, these banners line the stage, identifying the university’s academic colleges and entities.
International Flags
The university is dedicated to cultivating a global learning community and international focus in programs and curricula. The flags displayed on stage during Commencement represent a sampling of the 90 home countries of our international students, faculty, exchange scholars and visiting faculty.

Latin Honors
Latin honors are awarded by college, to undergraduate students in the top 10% of their graduating class based on the cumulative grade point average of all coursework completed in residence at Towson University. In order to be eligible to earn Latin honors, students must have earned at least 56 units in residence at Towson University. Latin honors GPA cutoffs for each college are based on the top 10% of the students from the graduating classes of the previous academic year. Students with majors in two or more colleges earn the highest Latin honors for which they are eligible. Honors are evaluated after the ceremony and will appear on the transcript and diploma when awarded.

The Presidential Medallion
The medallion is circular, symbolizing the continuous impact that Towson University has in the lives of those who learn here. The outermost circle contains the university name and location. At the center is the university seal.

University Commencement
Every spring, one ceremony features a prominent Commencement speaker from outside of the university community. The ceremony with this notable speaker will be designated as the University Commencement. Although one ceremony will carry this designation, all ceremonies are equally significant to our university community.

University Seal
The university seal is adapted from the reverse of the Great Seal of Maryland. At its center is an escutcheon, or shield, bearing the Calvert and Crossland arms quartered on an antiqued gold background. Above is an earl’s coronet and the pennants. The university’s founding year, 1866, is inscribed on a banner beneath.
Ceremony Etiquette

Commencement at Towson University is a formal and friendly ceremonial occasion. To ensure that all participants and guests have a positive ceremony experience, we ask that everyone in attendance demonstrates courtesies and behaviors befitting the dignity of this formal academic and personal milestone. We encourage all participants and guests to refrain from engaging in any behavior that disrupts the ceremony or prevents anyone in attendance from hearing each graduate’s name or seeing each graduate walk across the stage (e.g., audible private conversations, excessive and boisterous yelling, blocking the view of others).

For Degree Candidates

- All degree candidates are expected to remain at their seats until the conclusion of the ceremony and may not leave before the final recessional.
- Candidates for bachelor’s degrees, please note that the mortarboard should be worn so that it sits parallel with the ground, with the tassel hanging to the right. During the ceremony, the officiant will ask undergraduate degree candidates to move their tassels from the right front side of the mortarboard to the left as a mark of the official awarding of their degree. Master’s and doctoral candidates should wear caps with the attached tassel hanging to the left.
- Please remain seated for the duration of the ceremony. Degree candidates will be directed to stand and exit the arena when appropriate.

For Guests

- All seating in TU Arena is first-come first-served, general seating.
- Guests are requested to remain in their seats during the ceremony and not congregate on the concourse. Guests should also not block the aisles or passageways by attempting to greet or take photos with degree candidates.
- Tripods and other photographic or video equipment may not be placed on the floor of the arena or in the aisles as doing so creates congestion in walkways that must remain clear for safety reasons.
- To allow for the names of all degree candidates to be heard by their family members and guests, we ask all audience members to be considerate of other graduates’ guests by providing no more than 2–3 seconds of celebration or applause for their graduate. Guests who bring or use signs, fireworks, beach balls, balloons, air horns, bells or noisemakers will be asked to leave the arena.
WELCOME FROM ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Association commends, congratulates and celebrates the Class of 2024 on this joyous occasion! We know that your unique experiences at TU will guide you in your future endeavors. We look forward to seeing the differences that you make in this world and hope that you will stay connected, informed and involved at TU. Congratulations!

His teaching includes applied voice, opera and musical direction and conducting; vocal pedagogy; and vocal literature. His directing, conducting and production credits are extensive, with far more than 50 productions over his tenure at Towson University. An active solo performer and baritone, Collister has been a featured soloist with Bach in Baltimore, the Handel Choir of Baltimore, Washington Chamber Orchestra, the Washington Bach Consort, the Maryland Handel Festival, the Washington Bach Sinfonia and internationally at the Handel Festival in Halle, Germany. He has performed with his professional ensemble, Trio Montage, in international venues in Assisi, Italy; Dublin, Ireland; and Carnegie Hall in New York City. He has performed opera roles with the Baltimore Opera Company, Maryland Lyric Opera and Maryland Opera. He is the former music director of Young Victorian Theatre Company in Baltimore and artistic director of the Maryland Arts Festival at Towson University. He has also served as the conductor of the opera studio at the Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival and a voice professor for Summer Music in Tuscany.

PHILLIP COLLISTER-MURRAY
PROFESSOR, MUSIC
Dr. Thomas Krause earned his bachelor’s degree in physics from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and his doctorate in physics from Ohio State University, with a thesis in nuclear theory entitled A Study of Spurious Effects in Non-local Equations. His results led to a series of six articles in the Journal of Mathematical Physics, Annals of Physics, and Physical Review. In 1976, after a visiting professorship and lectureship at Ohio State, Krause joined the faculty of the institution then known as Towson State University.

During his 48 years at Towson University, he has taught nearly every physics and astronomy course and designed many of the introductory laboratory courses offered by the Department of Physics, Astronomy and Geosciences. Krause’s teaching has impacted more than 10,000 students at Towson, including at least 35 students in independent research projects on topics ranging from quantum mechanics to orbital mechanics, galactic dynamics and general relativity. He was inducted into the Towson University chapter of the physics honor society Sigma Pi Sigma in 1979 and was recognized with the Fisher College of Science & Mathematics Excellence in Teaching award in 2013.

As a scholar, Krause has served as a reviewer for many well-known textbooks including Astronomy: The Cosmic Journey by Hartmann, Light, Color and Vision by Falk and Astronomy by Pasachoff. He is also co-author of an 830-page test bank for the leading astronomy textbook Universe by Freedman, Geller and Kaufmann.

Bob Kasmir has been a visiting professor and a lecturer in the Department of Accounting for 15 years. He primarily teaches financial, managerial and intermediate accounting at the undergraduate and graduate levels. A certified public accountant, Kasmir began his career as an accountant in the Audit and Tax Department for Arthur Anderson in Washington, D.C. He received a Bachelor of Science in accounting from Kent State University and his MBA from George Washington University. Kasmir will be retiring from Towson University at the end of this semester and looks forward to spending more time with his family and travelling.

Terry Cooney received his bachelor’s degree from Harvard College in 1970 and his doctorate from the State University of New York at Stony Brook in 1976. In that same year, he accepted a position as assistant professor of American History at The University of Puget Sound in Washington State. Over the next three decades there, he rose through the faculty ranks, published several articles and two books on American intellectual and cultural history, served as associate dean, and completed his time there with eight years as academic vice president. In 2006, he came to Towson University as dean of the College of Liberal Arts and served in that role until 2020. From 2014 onward, he has also been the rector of the Honors College and, happily, for the last four years, an active faculty member in honors and history.
Betsy Neville joined Towson as the chair of the special education department after a long career in the Baltimore County Public Schools as a speech/language pathologist, special education administrator and district coordinator of related services. She earned a bachelor’s in speech pathology and audiology and a master’s in speech pathology from Towson University before earning her doctorate in special education from Johns Hopkins University. Under Neville’s leadership, the department has expanded program offerings and increased student enrollment, earning the department the distinction of graduating the largest number of special educators in Maryland. She mentors newly appointed and current chairs across the university as the FACET leadership fellow and coordinates the elementary/middle and secondary/adult special education undergraduate major. Neville is the recipient of more than $5 million in grants with research that focuses on classroom assessment accommodations and modifications for students with disabilities, UDL, IHE program development and culturally responsive and inclusive practices.

H. Wayne Nelson has earned three bachelor’s and master’s degrees in history and the humanities, an MBA and a doctorate in adult education and gerontology. He previously served in the Oregon State Executive Service and as deputy director of the Oregon Long-Term Care Ombudsman’s Office. Since joining Towson, Nelson has served the College of Health Professions as director of the Office of Collaborative Programs, coordinator for the health care management program and as the inaugural chair of the Department of Health Sciences. His commitment beyond TU includes leadership with organizations such as The National Citizens Coalition for Nursing Home Reform, the National Long-Term Care Ombudsman Resource Center and the National Association for State Long-Term Care Ombudsman Programs. He was made a fellow of the social research and public policy of the Gerontological Society of America “in recognition of outstanding achievement and exemplary contributions to the field of gerontology.” Nelson is also a retired colonel and former deputy commander of the 10th Medical Regiment of the Maryland State Defense Force (MDDF). He was coordinating officer for Operation Lifeline, organizing more than 100 volunteer medical personnel for the Hurricane Katrina relief effort, earning him his second State of Maryland Meritorious Service Medal (MSM).

MASTER OF FINE ARTS

STUDIO ART

Caroline Creeden is an interdisciplinary artist and educator living in Ellicott City, Maryland. She holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts in fibers and a master's in teaching from the Maryland Institute College of Art. Her work focuses on themes of memory, history, ancestry, material culture and the natural world. In her current work, Creeden explores 19th-century women's and children's roles in perpetuating racial hierarchies while reflecting on her own family history by using intricate painted and drawn patterns, textiles, ceramics, video and photography. As a researcher, she was awarded the Maker-Creator Fellowship at the Winterthur Museum, Library and Gardens to study historical wallpaper, textiles and ceramic transferware and the John D. Rockefeller Library research fellowship at the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation to study the role of oyster shells in Colonial American life. She was awarded the Langenberg Legacy Fellowship for civic engaged art and the France-Merrick Fellowship to run an environmental arts program. Creeden is a full-time public school art educator working with foundation and advanced art students.

THEATRE ARTS

Kai DonDero grew up in the southern tier of New York but has roots in Baltimore. They have an associate degree from SUNY Corning Community College and a bachelor's in theatre and performance from SUNY Purchase. As a playwright and storyteller, DonDero strives to be multidisciplinary: working with directing, devising and any theatre art form they can to create new work. All their work is done to challenge biased systems while finding connection with the self and body. Theatre is an art form, and art is the magic system of earth.

Tracy "Symphony" Hall holds a bachelor's in theatre arts and a minor certification in music-vocal performance from Morgan State University. Hall is an active alum of the Ira Aldridge Players (IAP) and a member of Alpha Psi Omega (National Theater Honor Society). Recently, she has created programs and developed curriculum that will allow children early exposure to theatre while enhancing reading and language development. She is the director of the Performing Arts Ministry at Life Music Christian Fellowship (LMCF) and has received training and certification as a teaching artist through Chesapeake Shakespeare Company, Summer Arts Learning Academy (SALA) and Dance & BMore. In 2021, Hall was commissioned by Rep Stage as a playwright to premiere her piece in LOVE/languages that featured the writings of various DMV-selected playwrights. Hall made her directorial, playwright and acting debut at the Strand Theatre in 2022 in the production of "Framing My America" that opened as part of Free Fall Baltimore celebrations. She is premiering her "Comedic Conversation" through the East Coast and can also be seen in local schools as Symphony The Living Doll, spreading the message of self-love and kindness toward others.

Sha-Nel Henderson, also known as The Top Talker, is a cultural communications curator from Indianapolis, Indiana. She intertwines her passion for community, performance and advocacy through the art of communication. The desire to learn new ways to intersect social change, dialogue and theatre led her to pursue a Master of Fine Arts in theatre at Towson University. Henderson's work does not revolve around concepts of elitist theatre but involves utilizing the art form in nontraditional ways, allowing for storytelling to unconventionally connect people. As the curator of the Black Theatre Block Party, she believes in creating innovative spaces for people to experience storytelling that speaks to them personally and artistically.
Alanna Kiewe is an artist who strives to make the worlds she inhabits full of magic. She holds a master’s in theater education from the University of Northern Colorado and is excited to be leaving Towson with an MFA in theatre. As a child, she spent most summers building fairy houses and running through her backyard as a knight casting spells. As Kiewe grew older, she discovered a thirst to explore topics of sexuality, inclusion, feminism, trauma, relationships and communication in her art. This passion and creativity led her to her current practice where she creates visually dynamic worlds where watchers are transported to mystical lands where the morals and lessons of society are explored. Her first written piece “Becoming Wendy” was just produced onstage at COFAC. In her spare time, she directs shows around the Baltimore community. Kiewe believes the pictures created onstage are essential to reaching audiences. With this belief, she hopes to go into the world and create aesthetically fantastical blocking, designs and educational opportunities for the stage.

Jamaal McCray is an interdisciplinary artist, mixing the oral tradition, myth, pop culture references and spirituality into a theatrical experience. He earned a bachelor’s from the University of Maryland in theatre performance. His influences include the DVD player he grew up with, X-Men action figures, Nicki Minaj and stand-up comedians. McCray is currently producing a series of original audio plays, which he says bridges the gap of theater accessibility in a socially distant, digital age. His goal was to earn his MFA to bring theater education into non-theater spaces.

Debra Buonaccorsi McWilliams is a creator, performer and teacher of theatre and music. After receiving her bachelor’s in theatre from NYU, she began her professional career as an actor, working at LaMaMa E.T.C., Arena Stage, Ford’s Theatre, Signature Theatre, Olney Theatre Center and Open Circle Theatre among others. She is the co-founder and creator of Dizzy Miss Lizzie’s Roadside Revue, an inter-genre, interdisciplinary hybrid theatre company/rock band/roving band of troubadours. DMLRR’s original works have been produced at The New York Musical Festival, The Kennedy Center Millennium Stage, The Capital Fringe Festival and the Keegan Theatre. Dizzy Miss Lizzie’s Roadside Revue was awarded the 2012 Helen Hayes-John Aniello Award for Outstanding Emerging Theatre Company.

Michael Vincent is Technical Director at Johns Hopkins University Theatre where he has been the program’s production designer since 2009, most recently designing aspects of The Clouds, The Cherry Orchard, and Galileo. At Towson University, he recently designed lights for Becoming Wendy, a premier by Alanna Kiewe. In the past few years he has worked in Baltimore with ArtsCentric as technical director for RENT, and The Strand Theatre and Fell’s Point Corner Theatre as set designer. He has recently taught Devising Theatre: Moment Work and Elements of Theatrical Design at Hopkins. He is beyond grateful for the instruction, mentoring, and interdisciplinary education he found in the MFA program at Towson University.

Ceremony Length
Each ceremony lasts approximately 90 minutes to two hours, depending on the number of degree candidates in each ceremony.

Concessions
Water is available free at concession stands (60 minutes before start of ceremony) that will remain open throughout the ceremony. Water may be taken to guest seats.

Degree Candidate Procession
The degree candidates will be in alphabetical order when the procession enters the arena, alternating on each side. The JumboTron allows family and guests to see all candidates well, despite not knowing on which side they will enter the arena.

Mobility Assistance Transport: This service will be available to take those individuals in need of mobility assistance transport from the Towson Center lobby to TU Arena. Service will continue through and after the ceremony until all guests have been transported back to the Towson Center lobby.

Shuttle Service: Shuttle buses will run continuously between the Union Garage and the Towson Center 90 minutes before the ceremony, during the ceremony and for 90 minutes after each ceremony. Regular shuttle routes will not be in operation.

Names are Meant to be Heard
At Commencement, we ask guests to be kind and courteous when you hear your student’s name for the sake of our faculty, our friends, our families and our students. Please be respectful with applause so that all names can be heard at Commencement.

Restrooms
Restrooms are located throughout the concourse and behind sections 101, 105, 106 and 107. An all-gender bathroom is located near Room 211.

Seating
Tickets are not assigned to specific sections of the arena. Seating is open on a first-come, first-served basis, with the exception of limited areas marked as reserved or for special needs.

Sensory-Friendly Resources
A quiet and low-lighting space for attendees is located on the first floor of the arena. Please ask an attendant for assistance if you need to visit this space.
Sign Language Interpreters
Sign language interpreters are located in section 104 of the arena. Anyone needing this service can go to section 104 and an usher will help seat you. Sign language interpretation will also be embedded in the ceremony live stream.

Social Media
Share how #TUproud you are of your graduate! Tag @towsonuniversity in your posts and follow along for ceremony updates.

Tickets
All guests must have a ticket to enter. There will not be a Will Call.

Video Recordings
All ceremonies will be streamed live. This will be done as it was in the past, which is an embedded video player at the top of towson.edu/commencement. In addition, TU will post all ceremonies in their entirety on YouTube within 48 to 72 hours.
