TO OUR GUESTS

Commencement is the highlight of the academic year. It is that significant occasion, both solemn and joyful, when we honor those students who have completed their courses of study. Commencement is important to you, the university and its faculty, staff and students. While the university respects the rights of all to express their views, we require that any such expressions during these Commencement proceedings neither disrupt the ceremony nor prevent others from enjoying it.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Towson University seeks to cultivate relationships with Native American and Indigenous communities and nations through academic pursuits, partnerships, historical recognitions, community service and enrollment efforts. These communities and nations include the Susquehannock, Nentego (Nanticoke) and the Piscataway people, who consider the land that the university currently occupies part of their ancient homeland. We hereby acknowledge the ground on which we reside so that all who come here know that we recognize our institutional history and our responsibilities to the peoples of that land and that we strive to address that history so that it guides our work in the present and the future. towson.edu/inclusionequity/diversity/recognizing-indigenous-people-land.html

ALMA MATER

*Oh Towson, our alma mater
Set up on the hill,
Where bells of our Stephens Hall
Ring proudly ever-still
Make more than your memories
Take the lessons learned
They give us each our story
As the pages turn
From different paths we've come
Down different paths we'll go
With change and through time
Our spirits grow
Oh Towson, our alma mater
Make your story told
And find moments to look back
To days of black and gold*

CONGRATULATIONS FROM PRESIDENT GINSBERG

Class of 2026:

On behalf of Towson University, I extend my heartfelt congratulations on reaching this remarkable milestone.

Today's ceremony is a truly joyous occasion—for you and your classmates, your family and loved ones, our faculty and staff, and our entire university community. It is a celebration in recognition of all that you have achieved, and all that you will accomplish in the future.

While commencement marks the formal conclusion of your academic program, I am confident that it also is a critical next step in your life's educational journey. It has been said that the most successful people never stop learning. Today you launch your unwavering and unending commitment to your personal and professional development.

I hope you enjoy commencement and experience it with a sense of great pride and accomplishment knowing you have gained the knowledge, skills and wisdom for success in your career and your life. You leave our campus well-prepared to make a difference in important and consequential ways. I encourage you to help solve the problems of our time and create a brighter future for us all.

You now become members of a distinguished group—Towson University alumni—joining more than 200,000 Tigers across the globe who are making a positive impact every day. I know you will carry on this legacy and demonstrate what it means to be a Towson Tiger.

You have earned your stripes, and as you know, a Tiger never loses its stripes. Go forth with the knowledge and experience you've gained at TU. I know that you will continue to make us all #TUproud.

And always remember—let's roar together. Go Tigers!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Mark R. Ginsberg".

Mark R. Ginsberg, Ph.D.

Regalia

Commencement is both a celebration and an academic ceremony. As such, Towson University is guided by the Academic Costume Code as outlined by the American Council on Education (ACE). All Commencement participants are encouraged to maintain a measure of decorum consonant with the occasion.

The caps and gowns worn by degree candidates and faculty in the academic procession have been the traditional costume of the scholar since medieval times and probably represent an adaptation of the ecclesiastical dress since many of the scholars of that period were members of monastic orders.

The bachelor's gown is distinguished by its long pointed sleeves. The master's gown has longer, narrower closed sleeves, extending below the knee; the arm is passed through a slit at the elbow. Finally, the doctoral gown has a full bell-shaped sleeve with three bars of velvet and an opening faced with wide velvet bands. The velvet trim may be black or of a color indicating the field of learning of the wearer or the institution from which the wearer earned their highest degree.

At Towson University, graduate students also wear hoods on top of their gowns, trimmed in a colored velvet band to indicate the degree earned.

The Alma Mater

Two graduating students sing and sign the Towson University Alma Mater during every Commencement ceremony. The music was composed by J. Kyle Richards and orchestrated by Brian Balmages.

Ceremonial Mace

The ceremonial academic mace first appeared in European universities during the 14th century and was carried before royalty, mayors of cities and chief officers of the medieval universities. The academic mace represented the amalgamation of two much older pieces of history, the regal scepter and the medieval battle mace.

The mace is considered one of academia’s most treasured symbols of office. It is a fitting symbol and combination of the requisite discipline and earned stature that comes with the academic achievement.

Towson’s University’s mace is beautifully constructed in glass, black metal, gold and maplewood coming together to represent institutional concepts and a visual history of the university. Our mace was commissioned and gifted by the late President Emerita Maravene Loeschke. It was designed and executed by four faculty members in the College of Fine Arts & Communication: Joshua DeMonte, Jenn Figg, Kimberly Hopkins and Jon Lundak.

Gonfalons and Banner Carriers

Gonfalons—also known as heraldic banners—are ceremonial banners carried on a long pole by students to represent each college, graduate studies and the Honors College. Gonfalons display the names of each college that represent different fields of study. Originally used in military and religious ceremonies, they have been a common part of educational celebrations since the Renaissance era. At Commencement, these banners line the stage, identifying the university’s academic colleges and entities.

The academic mace is typically carried by a Grand Marshal into the ceremony to signify the start of the processional.

Presidential medallion bearing the university seal

International flags displayed on stage during Commencement

International Flags

The university is dedicated to cultivating a global learning community and international focus in programs and curricula. The flags displayed on stage during Commencement represent a sampling of the 72 home countries of our international students, faculty, exchange scholars and visiting faculty.

Latin Honors

Latin honors are awarded by college, to undergraduate students in the top 10% of their graduating class based on the cumulative grade point average of all coursework completed in residence at Towson University. In order to be eligible to earn Latin honors, students must have earned at least 56 units in residence at Towson University. Latin honors GPA cutoffs for each college are based on the top 10% of the students from the graduating classes of the previous academic year. Students with majors in two or more colleges earn the highest Latin honors for which they are eligible. Honors are evaluated after the ceremony and will appear on the transcript and diploma when awarded.

The Presidential Medallion

The medallion is circular, symbolizing the continuous impact that Towson University has in the lives of those who learn here. The outermost circle contains the university name and location. At the center is the university seal.

University Seal

The university seal is adapted from the reverse of the Great Seal of Maryland. At its center is an escutcheon, or shield, bearing the Calvert and Crossland arms quartered on an antiqued gold background. Above is an earl's coronet and the pennants. The university's founding year, 1866, is inscribed on a banner beneath.

Ceremony Etiquette

Commencement at Towson University is a formal and friendly ceremonial occasion. To ensure that all participants and guests have a positive ceremony experience, we ask that everyone in attendance demonstrates courtesies and behaviors befitting the dignity of this formal academic and personal milestone. We encourage all participants and guests to refrain from engaging in any behavior that disrupts the ceremony or prevents anyone in attendance from hearing each graduate's name or seeing each graduate walk across the stage (e.g., audible private conversations, excessive and boisterous yelling, blocking the view of others).

For Degree Candidates

- All degree candidates are expected to remain at their seats until the conclusion of the ceremony and may not leave before the final recessional.
- Candidates for bachelor's degrees, please note that the mortarboard should be worn so that it sits parallel with the ground, with the tassel hanging to the right. During the ceremony, the officiant will ask undergraduate degree candidates to move their tassels from the right front side of the mortarboard to the left as a mark of the official awarding of their degree. Master's and doctoral candidates should wear caps with the attached tassel hanging to the left.
- Please remain seated for the duration of the ceremony. Degree candidates will be directed to stand and exit the arena when appropriate.

For Guests

- All seating in SECU Arena is first-come, first-served, general seating.
- Guests are requested to remain in their seats during the ceremony and not congregate on the concourse. Guests should also not block the aisles or passageways by attempting to greet or take photos with degree candidates.
- Tripods and other photographic or video equipment may not be placed on the floor of the arena or in the aisles as doing so creates congestion in walkways that must remain clear for safety reasons.
- To allow for the names of all degree candidates to be heard by their family members and guests, we ask all audience members to be considerate of other graduates' guests by providing no more than 2–3 seconds of celebration or applause for their graduate. Guests who bring or use signs, fireworks, beach balls, balloons, air horns, bells or noisemakers will be asked to leave the arena.

DOCTORAL HOODING

The Doctoral Hooding Ceremony is a distinguished academic tradition that recognizes the scholarly achievement of students who have earned a doctoral degree. The ceremony stands as a meaningful reflection of TU's commitment to scholarship, mentorship and academic excellence, marking the beginning of the graduates' next chapter as leaders, researchers and innovators. During the ceremony, doctoral candidates are formally presented and individually recognized. Each candidate is hooded by their faculty advisor or dissertation chair, symbolizing the transition from student to scholar and the conferral of the highest academic degree. The doctoral hood—distinct in color and design—represents the graduate's field of study and academic accomplishment.

Joyram Chakraborty, Ph.D., is a professor of computer science at Towson University, the director of the undergraduate IT program and a National Accessibility Fellow in the National Federation for the Blind. Chakraborty is proponent of experiential learning for all TU students. A multilingual, human factors researcher with interests spanning internationalization of user interfaces, game design and health informatics, he advances user-centered design approaches to computing challenges facing neurodivergent users. He has mentored 10 doctoral students at TU, six of whom are tenure-track assistant professors. He holds a patent for Automatically Determining Culture-Based Behaviors in Customer Service for his work with IBM.

GRAND MARSHALS

The honor of serving as Grand Marshal is conferred upon a distinguished faculty member in the respective academic college.

LIJUN JIN, Ed.D.
PROFESSOR,
ELEMENTARY EDUCATION
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Lijun Jin, Ed.D., is a professor of elementary education at Towson University, where she has served multiple leadership roles including China program director. Her research focuses on early literacy development, reading motivation, multicultural education and high-leverage practices in teacher education. She has led seven Fulbright-Hays Group Projects Abroad, expanding K-12 public school teachers' understanding of modern China and influencing curriculum nationwide. Jin is an active leader in professional organizations, including the Literacy Research Association and the Association of Teacher Educators, and is recognized for excellence in teaching and service.

MIKE O'LEARY
PROFESSOR, MATHEMATICS
FISHER COLLEGE OF SCIENCE & MATHEMATICS

Mike O'Leary is a professor in the Department of Mathematics with a joint appointment in the Department of Computer and Information Sciences. He advises undergraduate students in their research in areas such as mathematical modeling of criminal behavior in Baltimore and in hands-on techniques to attack and defend computer systems. He has applied for and received more than $3 million dollars in funding from the National Science Foundation to provide scholarships to TU students. He served as the founding director of the TU School of Emerging Technologies and spent eight years as the chair of the Department of Mathematics.

Karla Kubitz, Ph.D., is an associate professor of kinesiology at Towson University whose teaching, scholarship and service are unified by her long standing commitment to team based learning (TBL). She has taught Psychology of Sport and Exercise Psychology using TBL since the early 2000s and has developed special topics courses—also taught using TBL—on the psychological aspects of sport injury, perception based decision making and the errorless learning of movement skills. Her research spans psychophysiology, sport vision, exercise and cognition and the scholarship of TBL, and she has served as a summer research fellow for the Army, Navy, and NASA. Kubitz's service includes extensive involvement in the worldwide TBL community. She served as president of the Team Based Learning Collaborative and continues to contribute as a TBLC trainer consultant, mentor, chapter author and committee member. She also contributes service at the department, college and university levels, including long term membership on the Student Appeals Committee.

Dave Reiss, Ph.D., is an associate professor in the Department of Electronic Media & Film. After a successful career as a producer and editor in the Washington, D.C., television market, he returned to graduate school to pursue a doctorate in communication design at the University of Baltimore. Since joining Towson University, Reiss has focused on connecting media production with community engagement. Through his community-based video courses, students have produced more than 60 short documentary and promotional films for local nonprofit organizations and developed professional skills while serving organizations throughout the Baltimore region. For much of his time at TU, he has also served as internship coordinator, helping guide students from the classroom into professional media careers.

Kathryn Delahanty, J.D., is a teaching professor in the College of Business & Economics at Towson University, where she teaches professional communication and career readiness in the Business Excellence (BUSX) program. With more than 25 years of teaching experience and more than 30 years in conflict resolution and facilitation, she has long been committed to fostering student success through communication, restorative approaches and applied learning. Her work focuses on Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), Nonviolent Communication (NVC) and student-centered practices that promote understanding and growth. A member of the Maryland and Federal bars since 1994, she is also a certified Emotional Intelligence (EQ-i 2.0) facilitator, life and leadership coach, and trained social justice mediator, with additional training in restorative practices. As one of the original developers of Towson University's Business Excellence Program, Delahanty continues to prepare students to communicate effectively, navigate complex workplace dynamics and contribute meaningfully to collaborative and inclusive environments.

Christian Koot, Ph.D., is a professor of history and the chair of the history department. An award-winning instructor, he teaches courses on the colonial and revolutionary United States and the history of Towson University. Koot is also the co-director of the Unearthing TU History Project, an interdisciplinary collaborative initiative that centers student researchers as agents of change to develop a more authentic university history by connecting alumni and the wider community with the university. He is the author of two books and 13 articles that investigate the origins of the British Empire in North America and the Caribbean, the importance of smuggling in commercial history and the history of cartography.

Learn more about these university scholars by visiting towson.edu/honorsconvocation. All have a unique story forged from the desire to make the most of their time and the opportunities at Towson University. Like others before them who are now studying at Oxford, serving in the Peace Corps and working at top firms such as Brown Advisory, these individuals will pursue professional opportunities across the country and around the world. They will be leaders in business and industry, education, public service, social service and the arts. With their completion of rigorous academic and cocurricular experiences at TU, the university is proud and grateful to celebrate the successes of this accomplished group of students and alumni.

SPRING 2026MASTER OF FINE ARTS DEGREE*STUDIO ART*Robert A. Cook Jr.

Rob Cook is a Baltimore-based sculptor working in a variety of materials such as foraged waste from nature, including stone, wood, and invasive plant species. Recent works of handmade paper have been displayed in local galleries. His work explores human interaction with trees and forests and the health benefits derived from experiencing the outdoors. Cook plans to continue his art practice in Maryland but will travel to Iceland this summer for a residency in Isafjörður.

Electra Nicole Lowe

Electra Lowe is an artist originally from Jacksboro, Tennessee, who now lives in Baltimore City with their cat Finn. Their work untangles the rituals of home to reveal the hidden threads of gender, labor and consumption. Using tactile materials, symbolic foods and altered domestic objects, their work critiques the patriarchal structures embedded in everyday rituals—specifically, who eats, who serves and who is seen. While pursuing their MFA, Lowe worked as a graduate assistant in the Metalsmithing and Jewelry studio.

Kari-Ann Martin Miller

Kari-Ann Martin Miller is an interdisciplinary artist located in Baltimore who explores how social history continues to impact specific communities. Miller is currently collaborating with her daughter in exploring disability history, visibility and its lasting impacts on individuals and families. Her work includes printmaking, book arts, sculpture and audio components within immersive installations. She presented her work in a solo exhibition at Stevenson University and in group exhibitions in Maryland and Texas. Miller is an adjunct instructor at Stevenson University and Towson University and owner of Tiny Dog Press, a letterpress studio in Baltimore City.

EVENT INFORMATION

Bilingual Volunteers

Volunteers who speak a language in addition to English will be wearing colorful buttons stating their additional fluency.

Ceremony Captioning Service

Scan the QR code for access to ceremony captions directly on your phone. Please note: Because the number of downloads for this service is limited per ceremony, we ask guests to consider others who may need this service before downloading.

Ceremony Length

Each ceremony lasts approximately 90 minutes to two hours, depending on the number of degree candidates in each ceremony.

Concessions

Water is available free at concession stands (60 minutes before start of ceremony) that will remain open throughout the ceremony. Water may be taken to guest seats.

Degree Candidate Procession

The degree candidates will be in alphabetical order when the procession enters the arena, alternating on each side. The JumboTron allows family and guests to see all candidates well, despite not knowing on which side they will enter the arena.

Emergencies

Contact Office of Public Safety 410-704-4444 and/or 911. The location of SECU Arena is 7500 Osler Drive or the following coordinates: 39.38980 -76.61565.

First Aid

A first aid station is located at section 102 in SECU Arena. Please see a TU staff member for assistance.

Gifts

TU merchandise can be purchased outside of SECU Arena before and after each ceremony.

Lost and Found

Lost and found items can be claimed by contacting a staff member on the day of the ceremonies or after by calling the information desk of the University Union, 410-704-4636.

Lost Child

If a child has been separated from their family, immediately notify the nearest TU event staff member or police officer, who will attend to the child. TUPD can be reached at 410-704-4444.

Mobility Impaired Assistance

Seating: These areas are located on the concourse level of SECU Arena in the black club seats and are limited to the person with mobility impairment plus one guest. Guests in wheelchairs can be accommodated on the concourse level in sections 102, 106 and 110.

Mobility Assistance Transport: This service will be available to take those individuals in need of mobility assistance transport from the Towson Center lobby to SECU Arena. Service will continue through and after the ceremony until all guests have been transported back to the Towson Center lobby.

Shuttle Service: Shuttle buses will run continuously between the Union Garage and the Towson Center 90 minutes before the ceremony, during the ceremony and for 90 minutes after each ceremony. Regular shuttle routes will not be in operation.

Names are Meant to be Heard

At Commencement, we ask guests to be kind and courteous when you hear your student's name for the sake of our faculty, our friends, our families and our students. Please be respectful with applause so that all names can be heard at Commencement.

Restrooms

Restrooms are located throughout the concourse and behind sections 101, 105, 106 and 107. An all-gender bathroom is located near Room 211.

Seating

Tickets are not assigned to specific sections of the arena. Seating is open on a first-come, first-served basis, with the exception of limited areas marked as reserved or for special needs.

Sensory-Friendly Resources

Please ask an usher for assistance with sensory-friendly resources.

Sign Language Interpreters

Sign language interpreters are located in section 104 of the arena. Anyone needing this service can go to section 104 and an usher will help seat you. Sign language interpretation will also be embedded in the ceremony live stream.

Social Media

Share how #TUproud you are of your graduate! Tag @towsonuniversity in your posts and follow along for ceremony updates.

Tickets

All guests must have a ticket to enter. There will not be a Will Call.

Video Recordings

All ceremonies will be streamed live. This will be done as it was in the past, which is an embedded video player at the top of towson.edu/commencement. In addition, TU will post all ceremonies in their entirety on YouTube within 48 to 72 hours.
