Welcome to Towson University!

General Information about your new community

Congratulations on your acceptance to Towson University! You have made an excellent choice to continue your higher education and we hope you love it here as much as we do! Choosing TU to further your education is the first right step to becoming who you want to be. Towson University offers a distinct learning experience in a location that is filled with opportunity and employment.

Whether you are here to change career paths or advance in your career, Towson University offers unique programs that can help you meet your personal and professional goals. Our campus prides itself on being a diverse and inclusive environment where everyone feels welcomed. The variety of programs and expertise of the faculty paired with the close-knit community and personalized learning approach provides students with the best of both worlds for a graduate student experience.

Towson University is an ideal location for graduate students. Just a few miles north of the city of Baltimore and one hour away from Washington D.C., Towson offers the best of both worlds for city and suburb lovers. TU’s well-known status and affiliation can help students excel in opportunities such as research, internships, and jobs.

Again, welcome to Towson University! We are here to welcome you with open arms and ears. Please do not hesitate to reach out to us with any questions or concerns as you embark on this new journey! As exciting as this new chapter is, we understand all the information and changes can be intimidating and overwhelming so please utilize us during this time of transition.
On-Campus Resources

Albert S. Cook Library
The Albert S. Cook Library has thousands of resources to help graduate students be successful in their courses. From books, journals, and online databases, this space provides graduate students with copious amounts of literature to tackle your assignments! As a graduate student, you can gain exclusive access to the graduate student reading room located on the 2nd floor of this library. This space is exclusive to graduate students and serves as a space to study, do homework, or just take a break between classes. This library has a Starbucks on the 3rd floor (where you walk in) along with various study rooms, print stations, and large-scale scanners to create digital copies of the print media found in the library. If you are having trouble finding a source or need help citing an article, the librarians at Towson are experienced and readily available. We even have a “Chat with a librarian” service, for those late-night projects. The Library also holds workshops year-round on topics ranging from citation management to research tools.

University Union
The University Union houses many vital offices for programs and services on campus. Some of the services offered here include the university store, where you can rent new or used textbooks or purchase Towson apparel.

West Village Commons
West Village Commons is likewise home to various important offices and services. One essential office here is the Auxiliary Services business office located in room 309 (ASBO). This is where you can get your TU OneCard which will be utilized to enter the graduate student reading room in the library, print on campus, or take the campus shuttle. West Village Commons also has several dining options and an “all you can eat” dining hall. There are also PNC and SECU ATMs located on the first floor.

Burdick Hall
Built in 2018, this rec center is a state-of-the-art fitness facility! Burdick Hall has two multi-purpose activity courts, studios for group fitness classes, a ninja warrior course, 33-foot climbing wall, and numerous cardio machines and free weights for students to utilize. Burdick Hall is accessible to students with their OneCard and included in tuition and fees. Bonus: there is a smoothie and acai window to fuel up after a hard workout!
The Writing Center
Students can drop in during any stage of the writing process. Whether you need help brainstorming an idea or editing your work with a fresh pair of eyes, experts at the Writing Center can assist you! You can make an appointment online with a writing assistant who is also a graduate student.

The Career Center
The staff at the career center can help you identify your interests and passions and turn it into meaningful work. Through self-assessments and one-on-one career counseling, this center can help you jumpstart the career you always wanted. With resume revisal, mock interviews, and LinkedIn assistance, the career center can assist with all your job-related questions or concerns.

The Counseling Center
Usually at no cost, the counseling center offers a myriad of services to students encompassing the spectrum of mental health care. Some of these services are individual and group counseling, substance treatment services, meditation and mindfulness rooms, referral services, emergency services, and several mental health related workshops and events.

Accessibility & Disability Services-
In accordance with ADA regulations, ADS serves students with disabilities to find reasonable accommodations. The ADS office serves multiple student groups including those who may have a learning disability, physical or mobility disability, vision/hearing impairment, students with chronic health conditions, and those with mental health concerns. This office offers both temporary and long-term accommodations. If you believe you need reasonable accommodations, students are encouraged to make an appointment with the ADS office soon after enrolling to ensure those requests can be met in a timely manner!

Child Care
Emphasizing the Montessori method of teaching, the Towson University Child Care Center is conveniently located on campus and staffed with lead teachers and caring student aides. This nature-based environment allows children to grow and learn with their peers with ample outdoor time. They offer part-time and full-time attendance and offer various student employment opportunities.
Center for Student Diversity
This office fosters inclusion, collaboration, and relationship building across campus. By providing social and transitional support to underserved or marginalized students, this office upholds Towson University’s mission of a welcoming environment for all.

Health Center
Located in the heart of campus, the Health Center offers a wide range of services to students. Some of the available resources are contraceptive/STD services and testing, physical exams, immunizations and tuberculosis testing, lab services, common illnesses, minor injuries, and referrals. While the center encourages appointments, walk-ins are welcome.

The New Graduate Student Checklist
Congratulations on your admission and welcome to Towson University! Please complete all required tasks in the To-Do List and the immunization links by the deadline listed. If you have any questions about any of the items on the list, contact the appropriate office prior to the Graduate Student orientation or program orientation.

Remember to:
- Activate your student account (You will need your student ID number)
- Get your OneCard at Auxiliary Services in the Union (or pick it up at New Student Orientation!)

The Health Center’s priority is to keep the students and campus community healthy. All students taking classes on the main TU campus or any of the affiliated campus locations are required to complete the Towson University Immunization and Tuberculosis screening requirements. TU requires proof of immunization for measles, mumps and rubella (MMR); and Tetanus-Diphtheria-Pertussis (Tdap) and COVID-19 for all admitted students including Graduate Students. You can sign into the Tiger Health Portal to make sure your documentation and records are all up-to-date.

Complete your Immunization Requirements with the immunization form or by making an appointment at the Health Center through your TigerHealth portal. The Health Center is located at Ward & West Hall, 410-704-2466. All Charges will be billed to student’s tuition account or private insurance.

U.S. citizens and permanent resident students also must complete the online tuberculosis questionnaire found on the TigerHealth site. If required to obtain TB testing, download the TB test form and take it to a health care provider to complete. Failure to meet the university’s mandatory immunization and tuberculosis screening requirements in a timely manner will prevent access to class scheduling.
About the Graduate Student Association

Who we are

The members of the GSA represent all graduate students at Towson University. Each college has a specific representative that you will hear from during various times of the semester, regarding upcoming events and university policy that may affect graduate students.

What we do

The Graduate Student Association (GSA) is here to help and serve you…the graduate student! We are a voice for you! We address the needs and concerns that arise from graduate students. We offer workshops, research, travel, and professional development funds, and resources to help support your success.

In addition to these services, the Graduate Student Association also hosts graduate student orientation at the start of each semester. This orientation provides new graduate students with information regarding Towson’s campus, resources, and allows you to meet your GSA officers and various program directors.

GSA Funding

The GSA provides financial support for graduate students who are conducting scholarly research, traveling to professional conferences, or presenting at academic conferences. Graduate students who are currently enrolled in a degree seeking program, taking courses, and are in good academic standing may apply and be eligible for funding. Each academic year, students can apply for funding for one travel award and one research project. For more details, please go to our website, GSA Funding or email us at gsa@towson.edu.

Workshops

At various times throughout the semester, the Graduate Student Association will host professional workshops that are free and open to all graduate students. Some topics in the past included: Managing Stress for Graduate Students, Professional Branding, Working with Individuals with Disabilities, Resume, and Salary Negotiations workshops. The GSA will send out emails to notify graduate students about these workshops during the semester.
Open Meetings

Did you know you are part of the graduate student association too? Each semester the executive members of the GSA hold weekly meetings with the Dean of Graduate Studies to discuss a range of topics and concerns. Reach out to the GSA at gsa@towson.edu to find out the weekly meeting time for the semester. Please feel free to come to a meeting to discuss a topic, meet us, or ask a question!

Where we are

Our office is located on the third floor of the Administration Building in room 301. You will find us there during typical business hours!

Looking for a quiet place to study? Room 205 in the Psychology Building is a unique and collaborative space for graduate students! This space has a microwave, mini refrigerator, 3 dual screen computers, and a dry-erase board. This room is typically open 8:30am-5:00pm and is an open space exclusive for graduate students to collaborate or study.
GSA Social Media

Stay up to date with campus events and graduate student information by following our social media pages! We are continuously posting relevant information for graduate students along with quick tips for success, information about workshops, and other upcoming events.

Facebook: Towson University GSA
Twitter: @TowsonGSA
Instagram: @TowsonGSA

Graduate Student Facebook Group

But wait there’s more! The Graduate Student Association has a Facebook group specific to graduate students, like you! The group is exclusive to TU graduate students and is a place for students to ask questions, seek guidance, or just use as an open forum to discuss graduate student related topics and concerns. On this page you may find helpful resources from other students, living arrangement ideas, happenings around Towson, and more! This group was created to provide graduate students with a sense of community.

Graduate Student Newsletter

Be on the lookout for a bi-weekly e-newsletter from the GSA filled with upcoming events both on campus and in the community as well as resources for graduate students, and a featured Student Spotlight highlighting the works and accomplishments of some of TU’s graduate students.
Graduate Assistantships
About Assistantships

There are various types of assistantships and students are encouraged to contact their program director to discuss the opportunities that may be relevant or available in their field of study. More information about assistantships can be found here. The various types of assistantships are listed below.

- Graduate assistantships
- Teaching assistantships
- Research assistantships
- Full time (20 hours per week)
- Half time (10 hours per week)

Students may be eligible for an assistantship if they are:

- Admitted to a graduate degree seeking program at Towson University
- Minimum GPA of 3.0 or higher in each term and in good academic standing
- Registered for course units each term of assistantship

Benefits of an Assistantship

While assistantships offer great financial benefits, there are other reasons to pursue an assistantship. Graduate students who work an assistantship benefit professionally and personally. With this position, students may gain familiarity in their field, communication skills, leadership opportunities, administrative experience, and more.

Along with the professional experiences, students who are hired for an assistantship position will be provided with a tuition waiver and bi-weekly stipend based on the assistantship position, full time or part time. Further details can be found here.

How to Find Assistantships

Many assistantship are posted on Towson University’s Handshake page. While some are posted here, program directors are not required to post openings, therefore, we encourage students to contact their program director upon acceptance into their program. You can access Handshake by clicking here and will be prompted to sign in with your Towson University student information.
Towson offers the best of both worlds between city and suburbs. With Baltimore being just under 10 miles away, it is the quintessential location for a graduate student to explore, find employment, try new restaurants, and more! Towson offers a Collegetown shuttle that provides free transportation to 5 universities in the Baltimore region. This is a great way to explore your new city at no cost!

Situated by the waterfront, Fells Point in Baltimore has picturesque cobblestone streets, restaurants with a waterfront view, and unique boutiques. Conveniently just 25 minutes from campus, Fells Point makes for a great lunch or dinner spot, especially when the weather is great. Harbor East, just to the West of Fell’s Point is a popular destination for upscale shopping (featuring Lululemon, Sephora, J Crew, Anthropologie, Bonobos and more), both fine and casual dining, entertainment, events and more. And if you’re into history, be sure to check out Baltimore’s Federal Hill or Mount Vernon neighborhoods which are rich in culture and lore. Baltimore is also home to the MLB Orioles and NFL Ravens, both neighboring stadiums are easily accessible via the Light Rail.

Home to the Naval Academy and just 45-minutes away from campus is the state capital of Annapolis, Maryland. Annapolis is known for its historic buildings (the Maryland Statehouse briefly functioned as the US Capitol and boasts the exact spot where George Washington stood when he resigned his commission), the US Naval Academy, Chesapeake Bay views, fishing, shopping, and food- specifically Maryland Blue Crabs. You can find more points of interest and things to do in Annapolis here.

Washington DC is just 50 miles away and makes for an awesome day trip or nice weekend getaway! Washington DC and its surrounding neighborhoods are filled with history, culture, amazing food, dozens of museums, parks, and more! Other points of interest to consider visiting while in Washington DC may be Old Town Alexandria, Georgetown, Arlington, Logan Circle, DuPont Circle, and the Navy Yard.

Coming soon!

With its rising population and desired location, the Towson area is constantly evolving to fit the needs and wants of the community! According to Baltimore Business Journal, “In two years, it (Towson) will be busier, have more crowds of people and be more alive… it will be more cosmopolitan.” Here are some things coming to your town in the near future.

Off campus:
- Hotels - Hampton Inn and Home 2 Suites by Hilton
- Raising Cane’s and Doner Bros
- Greene Turtle returns to Towson

On campus:
- Renovation of Student Union; food market inspired atmosphere, 15,000-square foot ballroom, student activity space
- Renovated College of Health Professions coming in 2024
Local Housing
Near Campus

If you are looking to stay near campus, there are many options for off-campus apartments! Many of these apartments are conveniently located near Towson shuttle stops too, this will help you cut down on costs of having a parking permit. Below are some common apartments in the Towson area.

- Courthouse Square Apartments – Charming apartments in walking distance of stores and campus
- Somerset Apartments – Shaded and well-maintained community
- Rodgers Forge Apartments – Neighborhood-like community close to campus

Downtown Baltimore

Some students choose to live downtown in the Baltimore area. The commute is typically anywhere from 20-30 minutes depending on location and traffic patterns. Living downtown provides students with the opportunity to live in an apartment or rent a house/row home. Some of the most popular areas for graduate students and young professionals to live in are:

- Fells Point
- Federal Hill
- Patterson Park
- Bolton Hill
- Hampden
- Remington
- Canton
- Brewers Hill
Campus Parking and Transportation

Shuttle Service
Towson University has a free shuttle service for students and faculty/staff of Towson University. The shuttle stops at various points around the surrounding Towson area, both on and off campus. There is also an on-campus shuttle that can transport students to several locations around the campus. You can download TU shuttle app which allows students to track its location throughout the day. Shuttle schedules and information can be found here.

Student Parking Passes
If you choose to live at a location that the TU shuttle does not go or prefer to drive yourself to and from campus, students have the option of purchasing a Towson Student Parking Pass. A parking permit is required Monday-Thursday 6am-8pm and Friday from 6am-3pm. There are multiple options for purchasing the best parking permit for you. Students can buy a parking permit for the whole academic year, fall term only, spring term only, or night-only option. Students are encouraged to look at the campus map for eligible parking garages and locations. More information regarding student parking can be found here.
