

Study Abroad/Study Away Student-Professor Agreement

During our study abroad/study away program we will experience a variety of locations, topics, and perspectives. To maximize the opportunities afforded by this program, the following agreement will be upheld. Upholding this agreement will help to ensure that we take full advantage of the experience, interact respectfully with individuals from our host country/region, and represent Towson University well. Failure to uphold this agreement will result in academic penalties and/or lost program privileges at the discretion of the program leader(s) and other students in the program.

Please note that violations of the TU Code of Student Accountability may result in sanctions up to and including suspension/removal from the program and/or disciplinary action upon return to TU.
