Short-term International Programs & Training Examples

- Business in America – for business professionals at international organizations doing business in and with the United States

- Cybersecurity Seminar - for professionals in the field of computer and information sciences to gain valuable insight on cyber defense through intensive workshops, hands-on training modules and industry-specific site visits. Towson University has been designated as a Center of Excellence in Information Assurance Education by the National Security Agency (NSA) and has received NSA certification as a National Center of Academic Excellence in Cyber Operations (one of 13 in the nation).

- ESL Teacher Training - for English as Second Language instructors to further develop their professional careers. Program includes pedagogical theory, observation, reflection, practice & mentorship

- Exploring K-12 and Higher Education in the United States – for principals, teachers, and administrators to gain better understanding of primary, secondary, and higher education in the United States (Maryland’s public school system has been ranked best in the nation by Education Week for the past five consecutive years. TU’s College of Education is the oldest, largest and preeminent producer of teachers in the state of Maryland. Across the nation, thousands of educators trained at Towson University are now at the head of the class.)

- Summer in Maryland / Winter in Maryland – an English language and culture immersion program for those who desire to earn academic credit while improving English competency and experience U.S. culture firsthand.

- Supply Chain & Logistics Management Seminar - for professionals from public or private sector to further develop problem solving and techniques, obtain U.S. and global industry perspective updates and learn best practice first-hand from industry-leading professionals. Program offers robust & highly interactive curricular design.

- SAT/TOEFL Test Prep – for students who wish to improve performance on the SAT English and/or iBT TOEFL examination.

- Pathways to U.S. Higher Education – for prospective students to experience higher education in the Northeastern U.S., including but not limited to observation classes, ESOL instruction, regional campus visits, and exposure to U.S. customs and culture.