Because the U.S. Department of Education could not confirm your citizenship status, federal regulations require us to collect documentation of your status. We cannot approve any aid for you until we receive this documentation.

- Please find the category below that matches your status.
- Then please submit this form and one of the relevant documents to the TU Financial Aid Office.

☐ U.S. Citizen or Naturalized U.S. Citizen. Attach one of the following forms of documentation: *
  - A copy of your birth certificate, if you were born in the United States
  - A copy of your Certificate of Naturalization (N-550 or N-570) or Certificate of Citizenship (N-560 or N-561)
  - A copy of State Department Form FS-240, FS 545, or DS-1350
  - A copy of your U.S. Passport

☐ U.S. Permanent Resident. Attach one of the following forms of documentation: *
  - A copy of both sides of your Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551)
  - A copy of your Arrival/Departure Record (CBP Form I-94) or Departure Record (Form I-94A), with the endorsement: “Processed for I-551. Temporary Evidence of Lawful Admission for Permanent Residence. Valid until….Employment Authorized.”
  - United States Travel Document annotated with “Permissions to Reenter Form I-327 (Rev. 9-2-03).”

☐ Eligible Non-Citizen. Depending on your status, attach a copy of the documentation shown below. *
  - Refugees: Form I-94 or I-94A with a stamp showing admission under Section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), or a U.S. Travel Document annotated with “Refugee Travel Document Form I-571 (Rev. 9-2-03).”
  - Victims of human trafficking: Certification or eligibility letter from the U. S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), or a T-visa (e.g., T-2 or T-3) for a spouse, child, or parent of a trafficking victim.
  - Asylees: an I-94 or I-94A with a stamp showing admission under Section 208 of the IN, or United States Travel Document annotated with “Refugee Travel Document Form I-571 (Rev. 9-2-03).”
  - Parolees: an I-94 with a stamp that has not expired.
  - Cuban-Haitian entrants: I-94 with stamp “Cuban-Haitian Entrant (Status Pending).”

*Please note: The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and Department of Homeland Security (DHS) both allow photocopying of these documents for student financial aid applications. We must also confirm your documentation with USCIS or HHS, and this may delay the processing of your financial aid application for up to 30 days.

CERTIFICATION: I certify that the information given is true and complete.
