Edward T. Conroy Memorial Scholarship Program provides financial aid to:

- Sons and daughters and surviving spouses (who have not remarried) of members of the United States armed forces who died as a result of military service or who suffered a service connected 100% permanent disability as a result of military service;
- A veteran who suffers a service connected disability of 25% or greater as a result of military service and has exhausted or is no longer eligible for federal veterans' educational benefits;
- POW/MIA's of the Vietnam Conflict and their sons and daughters who were residents of Maryland at the time the person was declared to be a prisoner of war or missing in action;
- Sons and daughters and surviving spouses (who have not remarried) of victims of the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks who died as a result of the attacks on the World Trade Center in New York City, the attack on the Pentagon in Virginia, or the crash of United Airlines Flight #93 in Pennsylvania;
- Son, daughters, or surviving spouses (who have not remarried) of a school employee who, as a result of an act of violence either died in the line of duty or sustained an injury in the line of duty that rendered the school employee 100% disabled;
- Sons, daughters and surviving spouses (who have not remarried) of State or local public safety employees or volunteers who died in the line of duty or who sustained an injury in the line of duty that rendered the public safety employee or volunteer 100% disabled; or,
- State or local public safety employees or volunteers who became 100% disabled in the line of duty.

NOTE: Public safety employee or volunteer must have been a resident of Maryland at the time of death or when declared 100% disabled. A veteran applicant must have a disability of 25 percent or greater and have exhausted or no longer be eligible for federal ‘veterans’ educational benefits.

Applicants, and their parents if dependent, must be residents of Maryland and attend a Maryland postsecondary institution. The amount of the Edward T. Conroy award is tuition and mandatory fees at the institution you attend, but cannot exceed $11,800 for the 2019-2020 academic year. Award amounts may not reflect subsequent tuition and fee increases made throughout the academic year.

The total dollar amount of all State scholarship awards may not exceed your cost of attendance, as determined by your school's financial aid office, or $28,000, whichever is less. Awards to the sons, daughters or spouses of victims of the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks may not exceed your cost of attendance, as determined by your school's financial aid office, or $28,000, whichever is less, when combined with any other scholarships received by a student based on the student's status as a child or spouse of a victim of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks.
Awards may be held for five years of full-time (12 or more credits per semester) or eight years of part-time (6-11 credits per semester) attendance or a combination of both. Recipients may attend at either the undergraduate or the graduate level. Audited courses cannot be used to reach the minimum credits hours required for full-time or part-time status.

Application Process: Initially applicants for the scholarship must submit the Edward T. Conroy Memorial Scholarship application form, with all required documentation, and it must be received by July 15, 2019. Late applications will be considered as long as funds are available.

Selection: Awards are made annually, with renewal applicants give first priority. Initial applicants will be awarded based on the postmarked date of their complete application. The award amount is based upon enrollment status (full-time or part-time), the cost of tuition and mandatory fees at the institution the recipient attends, and the number of eligible applicants. Late applications will be accepted; however, awards will only be made on the basis of available funds.

NOTE: Awards are subject to the availability of funds.
