I also understand that if my situation changes and I move back in with my parent(s), or begin receiving financial support from them, I must immediately report this information to the Towson University Financial Aid Office.
Pleas	se provide an explanation of your extraordinary circumstances for us to consider.
requ pare suffic pare	traordinary circumstances make it difficult for you to obtain your parent(s)' financial data, we may be able to waive that irement through this appeal process. Examples of qualifying extraordinary circumstances include: estrangement from nts or parental neglect, abuse, addiction or mental health problems. The following circumstances by themselves are not cient grounds to approve a dependency appeal: a) student doesn't live with parents, b) parents don't support student, c) nts don't claim student on taxes, d) parents don't want to provide financial data, or e) parents have low income. (Aid tulas automatically consider financial need).
	eral aid regulations require us to consider your parent(s)' financial resources when evaluating your financial need. Howe
