Eligibility

To be accepted into the Golden I.D. Program, an applicant must be:

- At least 60 years of age (proof required)
- A legal resident of the state of Maryland (one-year minimum residency required)
- Not engaged in gainful employment for more than 20 hours per week
- One whose chief income is derived from retirement benefits

Benefits

The Golden I.D. Program offers holders a variety of benefits:

- A substantially discounted flat fee rate for students taking up to three undergraduate courses (with eleven credit maximum) in fall or spring semesters and for up to two courses (with seven credit maximum) in all summer sessions, all on a space available basis
- All special fees, where applicable, (labs, special writing courses, etc.) will be assessed beyond the flat fee rate
- A substantially discounted parking fee for Golden I.D. students who drive to campus
- Free access to campus athletic events and Cook Library
- Discounts to campus cultural events charging admission

Cost

- $75.00 flat fee per semester
 - $9.00 per credit hour technology fee (includes audited credits)
- English 102 (3 credits)*
$75.00
+ $9.00 x 3 credits = $27.00
= $102.00

Exclusions

The following courses are billed at the published rates:

1. Minimester
2. Special format courses (those directly dependent upon student tuition for faculty salaries)
3. All courses and programs offered through the College of Extended Programs
4. All courses and programs offered in the Applied Information Technology (AIT) MS Program
5. All courses offered in the Towson Learning Network (TLN)

Futhermore, the Golden I.D. student will pay regular tuition and fulltime fee rates for any credits taken beyond the course/credit maximum

Policies/Procedures

- Degree candidate not currently attending need to fil a readmission form well in advance of the registration period
- Non-degree students not currently attending must complete a Non-Degree Enrollment Form to be able to register for the upcoming semester
- Cook Library borrowing privileges and free access to campus recreational facilities will not be available to cardholders during any period of non-enrollment

Please Note:

- Golden ID students MUST obtain a TU OneCard ID

An ID can be acquired at ID services located in the University Union

- Campus benefits and facilities are only available to currently enrolled students

If you are not enrolled during a current or future term, then your benefits may be deactivated

I understand that the Golden ID Tuition Waiver Program costs a flat rate of $75.00 per semester, as well as an additional $9.00 per credit hour (including audited credits).

I understand that my Golden ID program enrollment does not apply to Minimester (the three-week academic term occurring in January), special format courses, independent study, internships, some satellite campus programs, all courses offered as part of the Towson Learning Network (TLN) and the Applied Information Technology (AIT) program. I also understand this discounted tuition is only available for up to 11 credits total during the Fall and Spring terms and up to seven credits total during the Summer terms.

Furthermore, I certify that I am 60 years of age or older, that I am a resident of the state of Maryland, that I am retired (not engaged in gainful employment for more than 20 hours per week), and that my chief income is derived from retirement benefits.
