Through BTU: Partnerships at Work for Greater Baltimore, Towson University continues to build a framework to capture and support the work taking place between TU and the community. In addition to Ongoing BTU Support opportunities, TU faculty, staff, and students have the opportunity to apply annually for BTU Investment support, aimed to align, scale, sustain, and institutionalize community engagement partnerships and collaborations.

BTU Priority Investments
Funds allocated as investments over a 1-3 year period, focusing on scaling, sustaining, aligning, and institutionalizing leading TU community engagement partnerships and projects.

BTU Emerging Idea Investments, supported by Whiting-Turner
Funds allocated for a one-year period, focused on supporting new and emerging TU community partnerships and projects, connected to underserved populations.
