Certified Associate in Project Management CAPM® Certification

New to project management? The CAPM® certification shows employers you have the knowledge and skills needed for entry-level project management careers.

WHO SHOULD EARN THE CAPM® CERTIFICATION?

The CAPM® certification is designed for anyone looking to establish a career in project management. It can help boost careers, especially if you have no prior experience.

COMMON CAPM® CAREERS

Project Coordinator

Assists project managers in planning, organizing and controlling projects.

Project Scheduler

Creates and maintains project schedules and ensures deadlines are met.

Assitant Project Manager

Supports project managers in planning, executing and monitoring projects.

Project Administrator

Provides administrative support to project managers and project teams

Junior Project Administrator

Oversees small projects, manages budgets and coordinates project teams.

CAPM® CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

The CAPM® Certification Prep Course from Towson University Continuing and Professional Studies meets the education requirements to sit for the certification exam.

EDUCATION BACKGROUND
High school diploma/ global equivalent

AND

PROJECT EXPERIENCE
23 contact hours of formal education

OR

EDUCATION BACKGROUND
High school diploma/ global equivalent

AND

PROJECT EXPERIENCE
1,500 hours of professional experience on a project team

IN-DEMAND INDUSTRIES FOR CAPM®

Information Technology (IT)
Managing software development and infrastructure projects is critical.

Construction
Project management ensures large-scale building projects are completed on time, within budget.

Healthcare
Effective project management helps streamline operations, implement new systems and improve patient care.

CONTACT US

coned@towson.edu

towson.edu/cps

TOWSON UNIVERSITY

PMI
Authorized Training Partner 2025