Have questions about the Project Management Professional (PMP®) Certification? Towson University can help.

WHAT IS A PMP®, ANYWAY?
Project Management Professional (PMP® for short) is an internationally recognized professional designation offered by the Project Management Institute (PMI). The designation sets project managers apart from their peers.

WHAT DOES A PMP® DO?
A PMP® oversees the planning, implementing, quality control, and status reporting on a given project.

WHAT QUALIFICATIONS DO I NEED?
Besides being a skilled communicator, prerequisites for the certification exam are:
- A secondary or four-year degree
- A set number of hours leading and directing projects
- 35 hours of project management education

IS PMP A GROWING FIELD?
According to PMI, over 15 MILLION jobs will be created in these fields through 2020:
- Manufacturing
- Business Services
- Finance & Insurance
- Oil & Gas
- Information Services
- Construction
- Utilities
- Manufacturing
- Information Services
- Construction
- Utilities

IS IT WORTH MY TIME?
A certified PMP® earns 20% MORE than a non-PMP

Average salary of a certified PMP® in Greater Baltimore:
$90,478–$108,573

CONTACT US
coned@towson.edu
410-704-2334
continuingeducation.towson.edu