

CONTEMPORARY GLASS ART Special Interest Group

Are you interested in learning more about opportunities to view glass art? Would you like to learn more about world-renowned glass artists and see their current works? Do you have personal experiences involving glass art that you would like to share with a group or are you looking to learn something new?

Join other Osher members at the Contemporary Glass Art Special Interest Group meetings
On the fourth Wednesday of each month in room 113B

Howard Cohen, Osher member and instructor, will be the group facilitator. For any questions, please contact Howard via email at glassguy529@aol.com

This Group is Free and Open to ALL Osher Members
