

FirstName LastName

Timonium, MD · 410-555-5555 · tstudent@students.towson.edu

Summary of Qualifications

- Seeking position in a public or private agency dedicated to positive social change and community development
- Experienced in developing and interpreting quantitative and qualitative data
- Skilled in producing professional reports comprehensible to the average reader
- Able to apply sociological theory and concepts to social issues
- Knowledgeable about group and organizational dynamics
- Sensitive to diversity of race, class, gender and other ascribed statuses
- SPSS; Microsoft Word, Excel and PowerPoint proficiency

Education

Bachelor of Arts in Sociology

May 20xx

Towson University, Towson, MD

- GPA: 3.5/4.0

Relevant Experience

Intern

August 20xx - Present

New Day Women's Shelter, Hunt Valley, MD

- Conduct 3-5 new client intakes each week
- Review and provide service referrals and police reports
- Participate in group and individual counseling sessions

Juvenile Justice Intern

February 20xx - Present

Partnership for Learning, Inc., Baltimore, MD

- Network with attorneys and judges to determine the needs of clients
- Meet with 10+ juvenile offenders and their parents per week; screen potential candidates
- Develop curriculum/lessons, program evaluation, fundraising; supervise follow-up services
- Tutor and mentor 10-15 youth per month

Memberships

Alpha Kappa Delta, International Sociology Honor Society, May 20xx - Present

American Sociological Association, January 20xx - May 20xx

Sociology Club, Treasurer, October 20xx - September 20xx