

Towson's Allied Health Program — Frequently Asked Questions

How long will it take me to complete my degree?

Towson requires a minimum of 120 credits to graduate.
Most Allied Health students transfer in 64 credits from their AAS degree.

Total credits required to graduate	120
Less Transfer	- 64
<hr/>
Credits needed	= 56
Most classes = 3 credits
56/3	= 18.67 courses

You can transfer up to an additional 26 credits if they were taken at a 4-year College/University.

If you only transfer in credits from the community college, you will need to complete a minimum of 56 credits at Towson. Since most courses are 3 credits, you would need to complete approximately 19 courses.

What are other requirements for graduation?

Towson requires that the final 30 credits (of the 120 required to graduate) be completed at Towson. A minimum of 32 upper division credits (at the 300 or 400 level)

A minimum 2.0 grade in courses in the major.

A final grade point average of not less than 2.0.

All Core Requirements must be completed (see Core Requirements). A review of your transcripts from Community College will determine if any Core Requirements may still need to be completed.

What are the application deadlines?

Check out Towson's Admissions Office Website for the application deadline dates.

What is the process for getting admitted to Towson University?

Complete the Common Application which can be found at

<https://www.towson.edu/admissions/undergrad/transfer/admissions/>

Send in your official transcripts (sealed, signature across the seal) and WES evaluation (if you took classes at a foreign university) to the Admissions Office.

If you meet the qualifications, you will receive an acceptance letter that requires a $300 deposit.

After the deposit is received your transcripts will be reviewed.
