The Athletic Training Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE), www.caate.net, and is required to report the following information

*Test year runs from April through February

Towson University ATP (2012-2014) aggregate BOC first time passing rate 94%

Graduate Placement

Many of our students will attend graduate programs after graduating from our athletic training program, while others will immediately enter the work force. Our students have attended graduate school in the following disciplines.

Graduate Study Disciplines

- Athletic Training
- Chiropractic
- Exercise Physiology
- Health Promotion/Public Health
- Kinesiology/Exercise Science
- Medical & Pharmaceutical Sales
- Nursing
- Nutrition
- Occupational Therapy
- Physical Therapy
- Physician Assistant
- Sport Management
- Sports Psychology
- Secondary Education/Teaching
Employment Positions

- College and Universities
- Emergency Health services
- Hospitals and Physician Offices
- Medical and Pharmaceutical Sales
- Military Bases
- Professional Baseball
- Professional Football
- Public High Schools and Middle Schools, Private Schools and Academies
- Sports Medicine and Physical Therapy Clinics

Accreditation Status

Towson’s Athletic Training Program is accredited through the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE). The program was granted continuing accreditation in 2008 and will undergo its next comprehensive review in 2017. www.CAATE.net