Exploring Memory, History, and Humanity

Honoring Memory. Preserving Stories.

Dr. Lauren Granite, U.S. Program Director of Centropa

Featuring two sessions from Centropa's global oral history project:

Session 1 — Kindertransport Stories

2:00 p.m. - 3:15 p.m. | LA 4310

Features Centropa's oral histories of Jewish children rescued through the Kindertransport after Nazi pogroms—known as Kristallnacht in 1938.

Session 2 — Sephardic Jews in the Balkans

3:30 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. | LA 4310

Explore the history of Sephardic Jewish communities and Survival in Sarajevo, a story of interfaith solidarity during the Bosnian War.
