The Towson University Chapter of Sigma Delta Pi - the only National Honor Society devoted entirely to students of Spanish. The Society will have an initiation ceremony for new members on Thursday, November 29th, 2018, at 7 pm (Liberal Arts building, 5th floor, common area).

The main purposes of this association are the following:

- To honor those students who seek and attain excellence in the study of the Spanish language and the study of literature and the culture of the Spanish-speaking people.
- To undertake projects to benefit the National Society, Towson University, and/or the community.

Some of the benefits of membership in Sigma Delta Pi include:

- A pin and certificate.
- Eligibility to run for office in the chapter.
- Voting rights in the chapter.
- Participation in service projects.
- Additional experience on one’s resume.
- Eligibility for scholarships to participate in study abroad programs.

Below is a list of qualifications for membership:

- Be currently enrolled as an undergraduate student at the sophomore level or higher.
- Graduate in Spring 2018 semester or later.
- Have completed at least two semesters of college Spanish at the 300-400 level, and at least one 3-hour course in literature or civilization/culture. Those currently enrolled in such a course may be eligible if their projected grade is a “B” or better.
- Have attained a “B” average in all of their Spanish courses.
- Have an overall GPA of 2.75.
- Show interest in things Hispanic and be of good moral character.
- Submit an application form accompanied by a $50 one time membership fee.
