Spanish Honor Society

Sigma Delta Pi

“Spanías Didagéi Proágomen”
Sigma Delta Pi - National Spanish Honor Society

☑️ Qualifications for membership

- Be currently enrolled as an undergraduate student at the sophomore level or higher.
- Graduate in Spring 2021 or later.
- Have completed at least two semesters of college Spanish at the 300-400 level, and at least one 3-credit course in literature or civilization/culture. Those currently enrolled in such a course may be eligible if their projected grade is a "B" or better.
- Have attained a "B" average in all of their Spanish courses.
- Have an overall GPA of 2.75.
- Show interest in things Hispanic and be of good moral character.
- Submit an application form accompanied by a $50 one time membership fee.

☑️ Purpose

- To honor those students who seek and attain excellence in the study of the Spanish language and the study of literature and the culture of the Spanish-speaking people.
- To undertake projects to benefit the National Society, Towson University, and/or the community.

☑️ Benefits of membership include:

- A pin and certificate.
- Eligibility to run for office in the chapter.
- Voting rights in the chapter.
- Participation in service projects.
- Additional experience on one's resume.
- Eligibility for scholarships to participate in study abroad programs.

☑️ Application

- Applications are due to Dr. Kathryn Taylor (ktaylor@towson.edu) by Thursday, November 19, 2020.
- The initiation ceremony will be held on Thursday, December 3 at 7:00 pm (via Zoom). You must attend the ceremony in order to become a member.