LONG JOURNEY:
The Black Experience in the United States

GEOG 472
“Geography of African Americans”
Tuesday and Thursday
3:30 to 4:45 pm

This course will examine collective experiences of early African pioneers, enslaved African people, and their descendants in Pre-colonial/Colonial America and the United States. The course will analyze the early agrarian industrial complex, westward expansion, urbanization, from a geographical, social, cultural and psychological perspective.