GenEd Requirements:

Fundamentals:
1. Towson Seminar
2. English Composition
3. Mathematics
4. Creativity

Ways of Knowing:
5. Arts and Humanities
6. Social and Behavioral Science
7. Biological and Physical Science GEOG 101
8. Biological and Physical Science LAB
9. Advanced Writing GEOG 401

Perspectives
10. Metropolitan Perspective
11. US as a Nation
12. Global Perspectives GEOG 102 or 105 or 109
13. Diversity and Difference
14. Ethical I & P

Total Credits: 120
Upper-level: 32

Credits taken this semester:
Credits included for subsequent semester:

CUM GPA:
GEOG GPA:

---

Foundation Requirements for Both Majors (43-44 credits)

Geography (19 credits)

- 101 Physical Geography (3)
- 109/110 Human Geog OR
- 102/112 World Regional OR
- 105 Geog of Intl Affairs (3)
- 221 Interp.of Maps (3)
- 232 Intro to GIS (4)
- 401 Growth of Geographic Thought (3)
- Upper Level Regional Course (3)

Calculus (3-4 credits)

- MATH 211 or 273 Calculus (3/4)

---

Economics (18 credits)

- 201/203 Microeconomic Principles (3)
- 202/204 Macroeconomic Principles (3)
- 306 Statistics for Business & ECON (3)
- 309 Intermediate Price Theory (3)
- 310 Macroeconomic Theory (3)
- 400-Level Elective, excluding 495 or 497 (3 credits)

Statistics Requirement (3 credits) You cannot receive credit in both majors for more than one of these courses
- GEOG 375 Quant Methods in Geog OR
- ECON 205 Stats for Business and Econ I (3)

---

Elective Requirements for Both Majors (24 credits)

Courses used to satisfy Foundation Requirements cannot be used again to satisfy elective credits.

Geography General Electives 200-level or above (6 credits)

- ____________________________ (3)
- ____________________________ (3)

Geography Courses Acceptable for ECON Credit (6 credits) Select two from 355 (Historical Geography of Urbanization), 359 (Economic Geography), 381 (Political Geography), 385 (Population Geography), 391 (Urban Systems), 393 (Transportation and Infrastructure Planning), 405 (Comprehensive Planning), 427 (Global Economy), 481 (Environmental Impact Analysis), 484 (Land Use Planning) or Topics in Geography Approved by Economics Department

- ____________________________ (3)
- ____________________________ (3)

Economics Upper-Level Electives (6 credits) Only one internship in Economics will count toward the major. Students may also select one of the following courses to count toward these electives: FIN 351 (Advanced Corporate Finance), MATH 377 (Mathematical Models), POSC 459 (Simulation and Games in Political Science)

- ____________________________ (3)
- ____________________________ (3)

Economics Courses Acceptable for GEOG Credit (6 credits) Select from 303 (American Economic Development), 305 (Survey of International Economics), 322 (Comparative Economic Systems), 326 (Economic Development), 334 (Economics of Poverty and Discrimination), 337 (Public Finance), 339 (Health Economics), 351 (Urban Economics), 374 (Economic Issues of Gender) 375 (Environmental Economics), 376 (Natural Resource Economics), 421 (International Economics), 423 (International Monetary Theory or Policy) or Topics in Economics Approved by Geography Department.

- ____________________________ (3)
- ____________________________ (3)