History Department Prize Application

Distinguished Presidential Scholarship in History

About this award:
The Distinguished Presidential Scholarships in English and/or History in the College of Liberal Arts were established by Robert H. and Ruth S. Sander in 1997. They are meant to recognize, encourage, and reward students who demonstrate the highest levels of intellectual achievement. These scholarships are awarded to outstanding juniors and are renewable for their senior years. The scholarship will cover all annual tuition and fees for either in-state or out-of-state recipients. The recipients are determined based upon academic merit.
