Atanarjuat: The Fast Runner
Language: Inuktitut

2001, Canada
Director: Zacharias Kunuk
Screening at 6:30pm in LA 4310

The first feature film ever to be written, directed and acted entirely in the Inuktitut language of the Inuit indigenous peoples. Set in the ancient past, this epic retells the story of a crime that undermines trust in a closely-knit community. The film won many awards and is considered a visual masterpiece. Subtitles in English.
