TUESDAY, APRIL 16

“Sawaroide”
Language: Yoruba
1999, Nigeria
Director: Tunde Kelani
Screening at 6:30pm in LA 4310

Filmed in the Yoruba language, “Sawaroide” depicts the problems that arise when the impending king breaks with the Yoruba tradition of having the saworoide (a brass bell talking drum) played before he is crowned. Subtitles in English.

Co-sponsors: College of Liberal Arts, Foreign Languages Department, History Department