Large Ensemble Recruitment Scholarship Program, Fall 2018

The Department of Music's Large Ensemble Recruitment scholarship program is designed to recruit non-music majors to participate in the following ensembles: Jazz Orchestra, Symphonic Band, Symphony Orchestra, and the TU Choirs. All non-major instrumentalists and singers who are willing to commit to one of these ensembles for the entire semester are eligible for consideration, after passing the required audition. Music minors are not eligible for this award. Application deadline: September 7, 2018.

The scholarship can take one of two forms:

1. Non-music majors may take ½ hour applied lessons at the majors' rate. (This is a savings of $180).

OR

2. Non-music majors may opt for a $180 scholarship award, payable at the end of the semester upon the successful completion of the course and the fulfillment of the performance requirements.*

Interested students should contact the appropriate ensemble director:

Dr. Christopher Cicconi, Symphonic Band and Symphony Orchestra, ccicconi@towson.edu

Prof. Jim McFalls, Jazz Orchestra, mjim@towson.edu

Dr. Diana Sáez, Director of Choral Activities, dsaez@towson.edu

Process:

- a) Send a short e-mail of interest in this scholarship opportunity to the appropriate ensemble director (above) as well as Dr. Phillip Collister, Chair, Department of Music (pcollister@towson.edu; 410-704-2143), Chair, Department of Music
- b) Request scholarship option 1 or 2 (above).
- c) Indicate your student ID number, your current major, and your instrument or voice type.

Scholarship requests will be reviewed by a faculty committee.
