(1 or 2 credit lessons)

- Develop fluency in sight-reading
- Instruction in reed-making
- *2 credit lessons only: optional lesson on English Horn, optional instruction in reed making, optional study of an orchestra excerpt each semester

Performance Requirement (Optional for the BM in Music, Composition Majors and Music Minors)

- Students in the BS in Music Education degree will perform a minimum of forty minutes of music publicly during their seven-semester course of study. This repertoire prepared exclusively as part of the applied lesson coursework will be presented in studio recitals, open master classes, and other similar public events. Students electing to perform a solo recital may include this literature in their culminating performance. In general, approximately five minutes are presented when enrolled (each semester) in the 100 to 300 level. Approximately ten minutes are presented in the final semester (400 level). Students should archive copies of their programs and submit these with their music education portfolios.

BM Performance Major Requirements (2 credit lessons)

- English Horn lesson: One English horn lesson a year is required for music performance majors. The lesson is optional for other majors.
➢ Instruction in reed making and finishing: Freshmen and sophomores may purchase oboe reeds. Juniors and seniors must perform on self-made reeds.

➢ Two orchestral excerpts a semester

➢ Semester public performance (see details for BS in Music Education above)
