

Daytime Student Recital Information
Spring 2020

PURPOSE

The DAYTIME STUDENT RECITAL SERIES provides an opportunity for music students to perform their repertoire in front of an audience and serves as a vehicle for developing performance skills. Performing in DAYTIME STUDENT RECITALS can lead to greater confidence in Junior, Senior and Graduate recitals and to performing in general.

PLACE AND TIME:

DAYTIME STUDENT RECITALS are scheduled in the Recital Hall at 12:00 noon on the following days unless otherwise indicated. Please note that some dates are reserved for studio recitals.

Recital Date
MARCH
Wednesday, March 4
Wednesday, March 25 (Trombone Studio Recital)
APRIL
Wednesday, April 8
Friday, April 10 (Studio Recital)
Wednesday, April 15
Wednesday, April 22 (Cello Studio Recital & others)
MAY
Friday, May 1 (Flute Studio from 12p-1p; Tuba Studio from 1p-2p)

REQUEST PROCEDURE:

1. Complete the Daytime Student Recital form on the Department of Music website. Print out the completed form, sign it and ask your applied teacher or ensemble coordinator to sign the RECITAL REQUEST FORM.
2. The RECITAL REQUEST FORMS are to be placed in the Prof. Barczyk's mailbox in the main office.
3. The deadline for submitting a DAYTIME STUDENT RECITAL FORM is NO LATER THAN SEVEN DAYS BEFORE THE REQUESTED RECITAL DATE. Performers are scheduled on a first-come, first-serve basis.
4. In order to accommodate as many students as possible, there is a 10 MINUTE performance time limit. Special permission can be given for longer time if the recital time is not filled.
5. The program will be posted two or three days before the recital date.

PERFORMANCE PROCEDURE:

1. RECITAL DRESS CODE: PLEASE LOOK NEAT!
2. It is your responsibility to arrive on time and prior to your scheduled performance. The recital will start promptly at 12 Noon. If you are not there when you are supposed to be, you will miss your chance to perform.
3. Tell your stage manager or faculty member in charge what you need (piano lid closed, short stick, full stick; music stand, chair, etc.).
4. Please remain quiet while others are performing.

ATTENDANCE:

DAYTIME STUDENT RECITALS are open to the TU campus community and visitors from the general public. All students are encouraged to attend these recitals in support of their fellow students.
