

2021-2022 Biology Student Scholarships

The Biology Scholarship Committee is now accepting applications for the 2021 Biology Student Scholarships.

These are scholarships that can be used starting Fall 2021 semester. You must be enrolled as a full-time student in the Fall 2021 semester to qualify.

To apply for any scholarship, complete an application on Towson University's online scholarship system at towson.academicworks.com. You are welcome to apply for any scholarships in which you qualify. As part of your application, you will list TWO faculty members that will complete an online recommendation form for you – we highly recommend that you discuss this with them first!
