

Entry-level Environmental Specialist, Contractual/Part-Time Basis, Immediate Opening

Looking for candidate with interest in environmental planning and community assessments. Job duties may include research, agency and public coordination, data synthesis, and technical writing assistance. Must be a highly organized, motivated, self-starter that is looking for applied experience in the environmental planning field.

Experience in researching land use, census data, zoning, and community resources as well as National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) knowledge a plus. Candidate must be proficient in MS Office (Word and Excel) with a working knowledge of GIS.

Undergraduate degree in related field a requirement.

Blackwater Environmental Group, LLC is a small woman-owned business that specializes in providing environmental planning support services to various government and private sector clients in the transportation industry. Blackwater is located in the Timonium/Cockeysville area of Baltimore County. For more information, check out www.blackwaterenvironmentalgroup.com and contact Ms. Caryn Brookman at caryn@blackwaterenvironmentalgroup.com