Human Resource Information System Unit

This unit focuses on the automated systems that support our HR programs and processes including the PeopleSoft and Taleo hiring systems. This includes ensuring the integrity of data maintained on all faculty and staff and generating reports/metrics to help make decisions on how we utilize our human capital.