

Behavior Standards

The Hussman Center for Adults with Autism maintains a level of behavior standards in our programs and social groups that allows for safe, effective, and inclusive activities for adults with autism, Towson University students, faculty, staff, and guests.

THE FOLLOWING BEHAVIORS ARE NOT ACCEPTABLE IN HUSSMAN CENTER PROGRAMS OR SOCIAL GROUPS:

NO violations of local, state, and federal laws

NO Physical aggression

NO Verbal aggression, including bullying or threats

NO Inappropriate touching

NO Sexual harassment or sexual assault

NO Use of weapons or threatening to use weapons

NO Use of alcohol, drugs, or other intoxicants

NO Discrimination

All participants and mentors will sign into programs and social groups and will give Hussman Center staff the name of an emergency contact person and an emergency phone number that is effective during the time period of the program/social group.
