

International Education Week

NOVEMBER 12 - 17

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 12

8:30 - 10pm • Glen Dining Hall
Around the World

Experience the countries and cultures of TU students and travel around the world without leaving campus!

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 13

Noon - 1:30pm • PY407
International Students 101

Join the International Student and Scholar Office for a student panel and presentation about the campus international community. Lunch served.

3 - 5:30pm • Potomac Lounge
International Initiatives 30th anniversary Celebration

Celebrate 30 years of international exchange at Towson University with an awards ceremony, performance and interactive (and tasty) exhibit.

7 - 10pm • Osher 101
Flowers of War film screening

Join the Chinese Culture Club for this award winning and graphic cinematic tribute to the human spirit and altruism rising above tragedy and inhuman aggression. Dedicated to the 80th anniversary of the Japanese military's massacre in Nanking and promotion of historical understanding and the deterrence of violence. Free food & parking. RSVP online.

5:30 - 7pm • South Campus Pavilion
Forget-Me-Not: What Children's Stories Can Teach Us about the Holocaust

The United States opening of "'Vergissmeinnicht,'" an exhibition created by German high school students about the fates of 14 Jewish children living in three German towns during the Holocaust. Dr. Fred Katz, one of the children featured in the exhibit, will share his story and how the panels came to be.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 14

Noon - 1pm • Cook Library 3rd Floor Lobby
Noontime Jazz

Please join us at Cook Library for wonderful jazz music played by Towson's Latin Ensemble.

1 - 2pm • Plaza outside cook library
Chalk the Flags (weather permitting)

Join the TU Study Abroad Office to chalk world flags outside Cook Library.

1 - 2pm • PY407
Language and Literacy in Iceland, Guatemala, and Egypt

Join Prof. Barbara Laster for photos and a discussion about these three distinct cultures and their approaches to language and literacy.

6:30 - 8pm • UU Potomac Lounge
Around the World in 90 Minutes

Travel the world through the eyes and experiences of international volunteers! Enjoy photos, clothing art, music, and more from returned Peace Corps volunteers who have served around the globe.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15

Noon - 2pm • UU 313
Funding Your Experience Abroad

Want to go abroad, but unsure about finances? Hear from scholarship recipients and get scholarship essay writing tips from the Writing Center. Using Financial Aid? A representative from the Financial Aid Office will be there too. Lunch will be served.

Noon - 2pm • UU 313
The Power of Connecting through Identity and Travel

Join the African Diaspora Alliance and the Study Abroad Office for a discussion about the African Diaspora abroad and the power of connecting through identity while exploring the world. Free pizza will be served!

4 - 5pm • LA4118
Fulbright Opportunities for Students

The Fulbright Committee invites you to learn about funding opportunities for research and teaching abroad

5 - 8pm • Health and Counseling Center Building
Healing Practices Around the World

The counseling center is excited to host an exploration of different cultural practices from around the world that promote well-being. Come and experience healing practices that include yoga, mindfulness meditation, aroma therapy, music, and prayer, among others.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16

12:30 - 2:30 PM • CK 507
What Does Home Taste Like?

The event highlights cuisine from different cultures inspired by the themes of home and belonging present in the One Maryland, One Book "'Purple Hibiscus"

6pm • Center for the Arts Mainstage
Lecture: The Role of Art in Uprisings

Visiting scholar Malcolm Purkey, of South Africa, offers a look at the role that art plays in uprisings and their context.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17

11am - 12:30 PM • Paws
Cultural Exchange Lunch

This program for study abroad returnees, international students, and those who have experienced cultural differences to share their stories and meet fellow Tigers who are interested in learning about other cultures and societies.

2 - 4pm • Cook Library Lobby
International Book Fair

Love to read and learn about different cultures? Join us for the International Book Fair in Cook Library Lobby. There will be snacks to enjoy and books to sign out!

6:30 - 9pm • Paws Stage
International Café

International Student Association invites you to this annual showcase of TU's cultural student organizations. Featuring dance, music, food and friendship.

ONGOING MONDAY - SATURDAY

11am - 4pm • Center for the Arts
Korean Wave Exhibition

2pm • PY 408
Study Abroad Group Advising Sessions

FOR UPDATES AND LINKS, PLEASE VISIT

TOWSON.EDU/IEW

International Education Week is made possible by:
Office of International Initiatives, International Student and Scholar Office, English Language Center, Study Abroad Office, Office of International Partnerships, Alumni Relations, Arabic Club, Housing and Residence Life Global Village, Chinese Culture Club, Cook Library, Counseling Center, College of Education, College of Fine Art and Communication, Music Department, International Student Association, Asian Arts and Culture Center, and Career Center

