

Assistant Professor, Counseling Psychology
Department of Psychology
College of Liberal Arts
CLA-N-3210

Position:

College of Liberal Arts invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Counseling Psychology in the Department of Psychology beginning August 2019.

Qualifications:

Doctoral degree from an APA accredited program and be license-eligible in the state of Maryland. ABD applicants will be considered, but appointment will be at the Instructor rank and all degree requirements must be completed by February 1, 2020. Must possess a strong commitment to excellence in teaching, be able to direct Masters' theses, and show evidence of a productive and continuing research program in the area of counseling psychology.

Responsibilities:

Faculty assigned an instructional workload of six (6) course units per academic year for the first year. Beginning the second year the workload reverts back to the standard instructional workload of seven (7) course units per academic year. Primarily responsible for teaching graduate courses in the Counseling Psychology master's degree program such as Career Development, Research Methods, Counseling Techniques, and Assessment, with the potential for teaching undergraduate courses in the clinical or socio-cultural topic areas, such as Abnormal Psychology and Cross Cultural Psychology. Faculty also will have opportunities for developing specialty courses in their area of expertise. Graduate courses are taught in the late afternoon and evening. Must have the ability to work with a diverse population and be sensitive to the education needs of these students. Requires an active service commitment to the administration of the Counseling program, with the potential for a leadership role in the future. Demonstrate research competency as well as evidence of continued growth of one's research agenda, leading to publications in peer-reviewed journals. Area of research interests is open.

Department Information:

The Psychology Department (www.towson.edu/psychology/) has almost 1,200 undergraduate psychology majors and 300 graduate students in five Master's degree programs, including school psychology, clinical psychology, counseling psychology, experimental psychology and human resource development.

Towson University:

Towson University (www.towson.edu) was founded in 1866, is recognized by U. S. News and World Reports as one of the top public universities in the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic regions, is Baltimore's largest university, and is the largest public, comprehensive institution in the University of Maryland System. TU enrolls over 19,000 undergraduates and more than 3,000 graduate students across six academic colleges (business, education, fine arts, health professions, liberal arts, science & mathematics), has over 900 full-time faculty, and offers 65 bachelor's, 42 master's, and 4 doctoral programs. Our centrally located campus sits on 330 rolling green acres and is 10 miles north of Baltimore, 45 miles north of Washington D.C., and 95 miles south of Philadelphia.

Application Process:

Review of applications begins October 1, 2018 and continues until the position is filled. Send cover letter, separate statements of teaching and research interests, curriculum vitae, evidence of teaching effectiveness, and three letters of recommendation electronically to:

Christa Schmidt and Danice Brown
Counseling Psychology Search Committee Co-Chairs
Department of Psychology
Towson University
Counseling_search@towson.edu

A Criminal Background Investigation is required for the hired candidate and the results may impact employment.

Please be sure to visit <http://www.towson.edu/inclusionequity/employment/data.html> to complete a voluntary on-line applicant data form. The information you provide will inform the university's affirmative action plan and is for statistical-related purposes only. The information will not be used for any other purpose. Please note that the search number for which you have applied is: CLA-N-3210.

Towson University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and has a strong institutional commitment to diversity. Women, minorities, persons with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply.