Lecturer
Department of Special Education
College of Education
COE-N-3251L

Position:
The College of Education invites applications for a non-tenure track, 10-month Lecturer position in the Special Education Department to begin August 2019 to serve as Graduate Coordinator for the Special Education M.Ed. and MAT Programs at The Universities at Shady Grove in Rockville, MD.

Minimum Qualifications:
• Graduate degree in special education or closely related field
• Minimum of three years Pre-k to 12 teaching experience
• Undergraduate and/or graduate teaching and/or supervision experience
• Record of program administration experience
• Commitment to collaboration with public schools

Responsibilities:
Faculty assigned standard instructional workload of eight course units (4 course units/semester). Coordinate the MAT and M.Ed. programs at The Universities at Shady Grove, including student advising, course/internship scheduling and staffing, recruitment meetings, USG meetings/committees and cohort orientations for two course units/semester. Teach graduate special education courses and/or supervise internship placements in various instructional settings for two course units/semester. Participate in scholarship and service activities.

Towson University:
Towson University (www.towson.edu) was founded in 1866, is recognized by U. S. News and World Reports as one of the top public universities in the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic regions, is Baltimore’s largest university, and is the largest public, comprehensive institution in the University of Maryland System. TU enrolls almost 18,000 undergraduates and 4,000 graduate students across six academic colleges (business, education, fine arts, health professions, liberal arts, science & mathematics), has over 865 full-time faculty, and offers more than 65 bachelor’s, 45 master’s, and 5 doctoral programs.

Towson University at USG
The Universities at Shady Grove (USG), Maryland’s largest regional center, is an innovative partnership of nine University System of Maryland (USM) universities on one campus in Montgomery County. Each of the partner universities provides its most highly sought academic programs and awards its own degrees. USG, in turn, provides centralized on-site student, academic and administrative services. USG currently serves more than 4,000 students (2,600+ undergraduate and 1,400+ graduate); all undergraduate students are upper-level transfer students. Towson University offers MAT and M.Ed graduate programs, as well as the Elementary Education/Special Education undergraduate program at USG.

Application Process:
Interested applicants should email a letter of application describing their qualifications, a curriculum vitae, graduate transcripts, and three letters of reference addressing the qualifications for this position to spedsearch@towson.edu.
A Criminal Background Investigation is required for the hired candidate and the results may impact employment.

Please be sure to visit http://www.towson.edu/inclusionequity/employment/data.html to complete a voluntary on-line applicant data form. The information you provide will inform the university’s affirmative action plan and is for statistical-related purposes only. The information will not be used for any other purpose. Please note that the search number for which you have applied is: CHP-N-3251L.

Towson University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and has a strong institutional commitment to diversity. Women, minorities, persons with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply.