2.401 ACCESS CONTROL

(17.5.2)

2.401.02 General Provisions

A. Employees who are issued keys or granted electronic access for use in their duty assignments will:
  1. Access areas only in the performance of bona fide job tasks;
  2. Account for, and provide appropriate levels of custody and security to, their issued keys and access cards;
  3. Promptly report and document damaged, broken, lost, or stolen keys or access cards to a supervisor or commander as appropriate;
  4. Return keys to the key coordinator or location from where the keys were obtained as directed;
  5. Request new, replacement, or additional keys or electronic access only by using the key request process;
  6. Return all long-term issued keys when they leave the agency or their duty assignments change such that they no longer need the keys; and
  7. Follow applicable key and access control directives.
B. Employees will not:
  1. Loan keys except in extreme emergencies;
  2. Duplicate keys; or
  3. Alter keys or any accompanying key rings.
C. Employees will use their electronic access cards instead of traditional keys to access electronically controlled areas on-campus unless exigent circumstances exit.
D. Loss, damage, etc. to keys, key rings, electronic access cards, etc.:
  1. That is discovered after keys have been issued will be construed to have occurred while in the possession of the assigned user; and
  2. Will be reported and administratively reviewed consistent with 1.432 Resource Care and Maintenance.
E. See also TU 07-17.00 Key Control & Card Access Policy.

2.401.04 Key Coordinator

A. The Logistics Officer is designated as the agency's key coordinator. The administrative assistant to the Logistics Officer's commander serves as the agency's alternate key coordinator.
B. The key coordinator has duties and responsibilities that include, but are not limited to:
  1. Those specified in TU 07-17.00;
  2. Securely maintaining the agency's supply of surplus and back-up keys;
  3. Receiving all long-term issued keys as they are turned in by employees when they leave the agency or their duty assignments change and they no longer need the keys;
  4. Ensuring employees sign for transactions involving long-term issued keys;
  5. Returning keys that have no reasonably foreseeable uses to the central key coordinator;
  6. Inform TU Access Control when employees leave the agency so their electronic access authority can be deactivated; and
  7. Conducting key inventories and access control audits as directed.

2.401.06 Access Requests

A. Employees will request keys or electronic access consistent with 1.433 Service Request System and UPO.114.D Procurement Request through their respective chains of command for:
  1. New, replacement, or additional keys; or
  2. Maintenance on locks within the agency.
B. Key and access requests that have been approved by a commander must be coordinated through the key coordinator's commander for final approval and submission to the central key coordinator.

2.401.08 Issued Keys

A. Some keys may be issued to employees for long-term duty needs, such as office keys, desk and file cabinet keys, and will be returned to the key coordinator when employees:
  1. No longer need the issued keys;
  2. End their employment with the agency;

3. Are granted leave of absences for 30 or more days; or
4. Are or ordered to do so by a superior.

B. Some keys may be temporarily issued to employees for short-term duty needs, such as vehicle keys, master key rings, etc. Employees will turn these keys back in when they:
1. End their tours of duty or duty assignments that necessitated the keys being issued; or
2. Are ordered to do so by a superior.

C. The electronic key box is the primary repository for keys that are issued on a temporary basis.
1. Employees will:
   a. Access the key box only to check keys in and out as authorized;
   b. Check keys in and out properly and on a timely basis to facilitate accurate electronic key tracking; and
   c. Promptly notify supervisors and complete Loss / Damage Reports (UPO.079.D) consistent with 1.432.08 Administrative Reporting when keys are missing or damaged.
2. Patrol supervisors will ensure:
   a. All keys are accounted for each shift; and
   b. Compliance with 1.432 Resource Care and Maintenance when keys are missing or damaged.

2.401.10 Key Control Audits & Inspections

A. A 100% departmental key audit will be conducted and documented whenever a new key coordinator is designated. These audits will be conducted by the new key coordinator and at least one other employee designated by the Chief. The key coordinator's commander or designee will investigate and attempt to resolve all audit discrepancies before the new key coordinator assumes full duty accountability.

B. Regular key audits will be conducted consistent with TU 06-17.00.

C. The inspections commander may have unannounced, random inspections conducted on:
1. The key coordinator's records and related items; and
2. Other records relating to key control.

D. Inspection reports will be reviewed, commented on, and approved by the inspections commander before being submitted to the Chief and others as appropriate. The inspections coordinator will retain finalized inspection reports for at least three years.
