The Towson University Police Department (TUPD) is currently investigating a theft scheme on this campus. The identified suspect is a non-affiliate who predominately targets open classrooms and lecture halls. The suspect is targeting wireless microphones and related equipment that are regularly used by instructors and others. At least one laptop computer has also been stolen.

An arrest warrant has been obtained by the TUPD for this individual. Additional charges are pending further investigation.

The TUPD is asking for the campus community’s assistance. Please make sure electronic equipment is properly secured after use. Do not assume someone else will be using the equipment and leave it unattended. An inventory of this type of equipment should be conducted as soon as possible by each department utilizing these devices. Make, model and serial numbers should be recorded.

Incidents like this rely on opportunity. Please assist the TUPD by limiting the opportunities as much as possible. Report suspicious people or activity in your building to the TUPD at 4-4444 or (410)-704-4444.
