Towson University is committed to preventing sexual assault and sexual misconduct, and supporting victims/survivors of sexual assault. Victims/survivors of crimes are never at fault for crimes that happen to them. While nothing is failsafe, here are some suggestions everyone should consider.

- Be active in supporting a safe and respectful community. If you see others engaging in disrespectful or inappropriate actions, speak up and get involved, or contact someone else to assist.
- If anything suspicious occurs or you are the victim/survivor of a crime, contact the Towson University Police Department by dialing 410-704-4444 or by pushing the red emergency button on any blue light emergency phone. You can also notify TUPD via the SaferMobility app.
- Program the Towson University Police Department phone number into your cell phone so you can be prepared in an emergency – 410-704-4444.
- To report sexual violence, contact the Title IX Coordinator at titleix@towson.edu, 410-704-0203, or www.towson.edu/xoutsexualviolence.
- To speak to a counselor, contact the Towson University Counseling Center at 410-704-2512.

Please visit www.towson.edu/publicsafety and www.towson.edu/xoutsexualviolence for more information about sexual violence prevention and response resources.

Timely Warnings are posted to notify the Towson University community to increase awareness of potentially dangerous situations. Community members should take necessary precautions to prevent themselves from being victims of crimes. Personal safety practices and knowledge are effective means of preventing victimization.

This Timely Warning has been approved by Bernard Gerst, Associate Vice President, Office of Public Safety and Chief of Police and is intended to promote campus security and comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Police and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1990.
