The above pictured individual is a person of interest in an indecent exposure that occurred inside the Cook Library on 12/12/2012 at approximately 1:50 pm.

Efforts to identify the individual before the close of last semester were not successful. Since the weather has gotten colder again, the subject may be recognized by the winter clothing shown. The witness reported the subject was a black male, possibly in his 30’s, wearing a blue waist length jacket with a red and a darker blue stripe, orange(ish) colored eyeglasses, cargo pants, and a knit hat.

Students, faculty, and staff (particularly those utilizing the Cook Library) are asked to contact the TUPD (4-4444 or 410-704-4444) if you see this subject. Please do not approach or confront the individual.
