

Fall & Spring Terms

Information about tuition and fees for undergraduate and graduate students.

Fall 2025 and Spring 2026 Rate Structures

Towson University has campus and special programs across the state of Maryland and across which affect the rate structure. Tuition and fees are assessed based on the class level undergraduate or graduate and which campus the class is held at by the student when the student term. The student career may be used for other special fees. Additional rates may apply to special programs and fees. Additional fees apply to certain courses and the amount covers the cost of the course. Most courses are either in the state or out of state. An education fee will be added to applicable courses and/or programs.

Please note that Towson University reserves the right to make changes in tuition, fees and other charges at any time such changes are deemed necessary by the university and the University System of Maryland Board of Regents.

For information about registered lab and educational costs including estimated living and personal expenses, please review Cost of Attendance budgets.

The University reserves the right to provide some or all instruction and related academic activities through alternative methods of delivery including remote delivery if it is deemed the right to change the method of delivery before or during an academic term in the event of a health or safety emergency or other circumstance which it determines that such change is necessary or in the best interests of the campus community. Tuition and auxiliary fees will be for instruction or who attend at the University campus. The delivery method for all or part of an academic course.

Technology Fee	up to $120 per term

Accelerated Bachelor's to Master's Degree Programs

Towson University offers a number of accelerated bachelor's to master's degree programs. After completing a minimum of 60 units of undergraduate coursework, students may apply to a 3+2 or 4+2 program. Towson University fees will be assessed for the undergraduate tuition and fees rates for 3 units of graduate coursework, including all of the above-mentioned fees. Undergraduate tuition will be assessed for graduate courses in special programs (e.g. Applied Information Technology). Please see the program requirements for more details.

Graduate Online Program

Special rate structure applies to students enrolled in the online version of the following graduate programs:

- Design for User Experience (Graduate Certificate)
- Historic Education (Graduate Certificate)
- Instructional Technology (MS)
- Instructional Technology (PhD)
- Integrated Homeland Security Management (MS)
- Health Studies, Education, and Community Leadership (MS)
- Occupational Science (PhD)
- Second professional Occupational Therapy (Doctorate)
- Second Education (MS)

The rates listed below apply to all of above categories enrolled in the designated program and will remain in effect for any courses taken while the student is enrolled in the program.

<sup>1</sup>Newly admitted Freshmen, transfers and all Graduate students will be billed with a September 3, 2025 due date.

Note that in order to receive 100% adjustment of tuition and fees, you must drop by September 3, 2025.

Registration Restrictions

If you have a university account balance in excess of $500, you will not be allowed to register.

eBill Notification and Payment

Payment of the electronic tuition bill (eBill) is the responsibility of the student and is due to the university each term. Notification that an eBill has been issued is communicated to each student via their TU campus email. Failure to pay or provide financial aid or third party documentation to cover the eBill statement balance does not discharge the financial obligation, including any late payment assessments, and may result in the cancellation of your class schedule.

AVOID CLASS CANCELLATION

Contact the Student & University Billing Office if you do not receive an eBill notification at least one week prior to your payment due date.

Securing or Canceling Your Schedule

If your account balance reflects a credit or zero balance, your class schedule will be secured for the term. If your account reflects a credit or zero balance and you choose NOT to attend the upcoming term, you MUST drop all of your classes by the end of the change of schedule period in order to receive a 100 percent refund of tuition and fees. You must withdraw online through Self Service.

To withdraw online:

- Login to Towson Online Services
- Click Student & Faculty Dashboard
- Click Enrollment
- Click Drop Classes

Notification to the instructor does not constitute a proper withdrawal. If you fail to withdraw in the proper manner and timeframe, you will be financially responsible for all term charges. A $150 late fee is assessed to any student who does not pay in full or establish a payment plan with the university by their bill payment deadline.

Fall Refund Dates & Policy

Fall 2025 Refund Policy

A full or partial refund may be given if you choose not to complete the fall session. To qualify, you must officially withdraw online through Self Service. Notification to the instructor does not constitute a proper withdrawal. If you fail to officially drop online, you will be financially responsible for all term charges. Please note that during the change of schedule period, students are allowed to adjust their schedules and receive a 100% refund of tuition and fees. The following dates only apply to full withdrawal from the university.

To drop online:

- Login to Towson Online Services
- Click Student & Faculty Dashboard
- Click Enrollment
- Click Drop Classes

You must drop courses by the end of the change of schedule period for the class session in order to receive a 100 percent refund of tuition and fees. If you choose to drop after the change of schedule period for the class session, the last date on which you withdraw online from a class determines the percentage of the refund. All refund percentages are based on the official start of the class session. Please see below for refund method.

Refund Method

Any unpaid charges on a student's financial account with Towson University will be subtracted from the refund amount prior to processing a refund request. For payments made by credit card, refunds will be credited to the original credit card account and will be reflected on your credit card monthly statement. For payments made by any method other than credit card, refunds will be issued by check. For each class session, refunds will be processed after the term's change of schedule period. However, students may ask for the refund process to be initiated prior to this by contacting the Student & University Billing Office. If a student receives a refund of amounts charged to a credit card, the credit card owners are responsible for paying any and all interest charges accrued on the credit card.

Questions regarding refunds should be referred to the Student & University Billing Office in Enrollment Services room 336, 410-704-2100, toll free 1-888-528-7727. You can also access information about exceptions to our refund policy.
