Exhibition | The Korean Wave!

12:00 p.m. -4:00 p.m., Center for the Arts 2037, Asian Arts Gallery

Explore "hallyu," the "Korean Wave"--the explosion in global popularity of Korean dramas, films, popular music, fashion and food erupted in East Asia in the late 1990s and spread across the world in the late 2000s. Learn about the history of this phenomenon and the trend-setting artists who continue to transform the face of popular culture across the world. Discover how technological innovations contributed to Korea's emergence as a global hub for the production of pop culture.

Exhibition | PRINTFEST: Modern, Contemporary, and Future Masters

12:00 p.m. -8:00 p.m., Center for the Arts 3040, Center for the Arts Gallery

PRINTFEST is a collection of four interrelated exhibitions on prints and printmaking in the 20th and 21st centuries: Modern Masters: Twentieth Century Prints from the Reading Public Museum; Modern Masters: Twentieth Century Prints by African American Artists in the Collection of Otis Robertson; Modern Print Methods and Techniques; and Masters of the Contemporary Print (in the Holtzman MFA Gallery, Sept. 8 - Oct. 7 only).

These exhibitions showcase historical figures and young and upcoming artists including Picasso, Warhol, John Biggers, Alison Saar, Sandy Winters and Shelley Thorstensen.

Fall Career and Internship Fair

12:00 p.m. -3:00 p.m., SECU Arena

The largest fair in the region is at TU's SECU Arena! TU students and alumni from all majors are invited to attend and meet with 200 employers recruiting for full-time jobs and internship positions. Our students are encouraged to immerse themselves in the job fair process whether they are actively searching for a job or internship or are just getting started and would like to see what a job fair is all about. Tiger families are also invited to attend and meet with employers from local, regional and national organizations who choose Towson University as a recruiting destination.

Steel Drum Band

7:00 p.m. -9:00 p.m., PAWS Pavilion (Rain Location, University Union Potomac Lounge)
