

First Year Experience (FYE) Leader-Welcome to TU 2023

The role of the FYE Leader is to support orientation activities from the First Year Experience (FYE) advising class through the required sessions for incoming student. FYE Leaders will also incorporate intentional reflection sessions throughout the weekend.

Why should I apply to be an FYE Leader with New Student and Family Programs?

If you are selected as an FYE Leader, you will receive the following benefits in addition to getting paid:

- Increased leadership and communication skills
- Ability to welcome new students to a supportive and thriving campus environment
- Interaction with a wide variety of faculty, staff, and other important TU people
- Chance to use your skills and make NSFP programming much better!

What is the time commitment of an FYE Leader?

FYE Leaders will work approximately 30 hours from Monday, August 21st through Sunday, August 27th 2023, with potential additional hours available through September 9th. These hours include a day of paid training. Because this is a limited duration position, students who have other paid positions during Welcome to TU will likely not be able to fulfill this role.

What are requirements and compensation of serving as an FYE Leader?

FYE Leaders must meet the following requirements:

- Be willing to engage with different constituencies depending on the program, including families, campus staff, faculty, academic advisers, and other student staff
- Must have a 2.5 cumulative GPA by the end of the Spring 2022 semester and be in good standing with the Office of Student Conduct and Civility Education
- Must be a full-time enrolled undergraduate student at Towson University during the Spring 2023 and Fall 2023 semesters
- FYE Leaders meeting those requirements earn a wage of $15/hour for up to 30 hours/week.
- FYE Leaders will also receive TU apparel to wear throughout the weekend.

Sounds good! How can I apply to be an FYE Leader?

- Applying is very easy! You can find the link on our website or handshake.
